Rosalie Goes Shopping:

Rosalie goes shopping, 1987 ROSALIE GOES SHOPPING, 1989 When Heimat Meets Hollywood Christine Haase, 2007 Contemporary connections between German directors and Hollywood and their implications for German American and transnational film The film histories of Germany and the United States have long been seen as intertwined but scholarship has focused on migr works of the 1930s and 1940s on links between Weimar film and American film noir and on the conflicted relationship between directors of the New German Cinema and Hollywood Recently German film studies has begun reexamining the interconnection of the two film cultures and focusing on the internationalism of German cinema but little research has been done on contemporary German directors involvement in American cinema a gap in scholarship that this book fills The study offers ways of understanding current German cinematic engagement with America and different directorial responses to the hegemonic pressures of Hollywood It delineates the historical trajectory of German American film relations in the 20th century then analyzes the careers and works of four German born directors who have significant ties with American cinema Wolfgang Petersen Roland Emmerich Percy Adlon and Tom Tykwer A series of close readings of their productions isolates the cinematic practices and strategies with which these filmmakers negotiate the different national cultural and cinematic paradigms they traverse The book analyzes constructions of national cultural identity probes the boundaries of national cinemas and expands our understanding of emerging hybrid film cultures It is a contribution to German film studies and to the emerging field of transnational film studies Christine Haase is Associate Professor of German at the University of Georgia Deviant Eyes, Deviant Bodies Chris Straayer, 1996 On homosexuality in cinema Out at the Movies Steven Paul Davies, Simon Callow, 2008-12-01 Over the decades gay cinema has reflected the community's journey from persecution to emancipation to acceptance Politicized dramas like Victim in the 1960s The Naked Civil Servant in the 1970s and the AIDS cinema of the 1980s have given way in recent years to films which celebrate a vast array of gay lifestyles Gay films have undergone a major shift from the fringe to the mainstream 2005's Academy Awards were dubbed the gay Oscars with statues going to Brokeback Mountain Capote and Transamerica Producers began clamoring to back gay themed movies and the most high profile of these is Gus Van Sant's forthcoming Milk starring Sean Penn as Harvey Milk the first prominent American political figure to be elected to office on an openly gay ticket back in the 1970s The book also covers gay filmmakers and actors and their influence within the industry the most iconic scenes from gay cinema and the most memorable dialogue from key films Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Emigrants to the United States Wikipedia contributors, Moving Pictures, Migrating Identities Eva Rueschmann, 2003 Deterritorializing the New German Cinema John E. Davidson, 1993 New York Magazine, 1990-03-26 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the Movie Mutations Jonathan Rosenbaum, Adrian Martin, 2019-07-25 The idea of cinephilia is a crucial one for students of the cinema but it is often associated with a bygone arthouse era At the beginning of the twenty first century corporatism public relations and bottom line accounting seem to govern mainstream film making Formula driven Hollywood blockbusters dominate the world marketplace In times like these can the love of cinema still flourish In fact contemporary cinema is stunningly varied and rich From Taiwan and Iran to Brazil and the Baltic states it is flourishing and constantly mutating Directors like Abbas Kiarostami Hou Hsiao hsien and Tsai Ming liang are making extraordinary films that are the equal of the great classics previously unrecognised works from the past are being discovered and new definitions and boundaries of genres are being formulated Even when this work is not widely distributed it is seen at film festivals on every continent and available on DVD and it is being discussed in a proliferating number of print and web publications Those who follow and share such work as contributors from around the world demonstrate in this book are forming new kinds of critical communities that enable significant exchanges between cultures at a time when other forces seem bent on keeping them mutually isolated In contrast to any talk of the death of cinema Movie Mutations pronounces the art form alive well and still developing in new and unforeseen directions In weaving together transnational discussions and debates Movie Mutations shows why the idea of cinephilia is just as relevant today as it ever was

The German Cinema Book Tim Bergfelder, Erica Carter, Deniz Göktürk, Claudia Sandberg, 2020-02-20 This comprehensively revised updated and significantly extended edition introduces German film history from its beginnings to the present day covering key periods and movements including early and silent cinema Weimar cinema Nazi cinema the New German Cinema the Berlin School the cinema of migration and moving images in the digital era Contributions by leading international scholars are grouped into sections that focus on genre stars authorship film production distribution and exhibition theory and politics including women's and queer cinema and transnational connections Spotlight articles within each section offer key case studies including of individual films that illuminate larger histories Heimat Downfall The Lives of Others The Edge of Heaven and many more stars from Ossi Oswalda and Hans Albers to Hanna Schygulla and Nina Hoss directors including F W Murnau Walter Ruttmann Wim Wenders and Helke Sander and film theorists including Siegfried Kracauer and Béla Balázs The volume provides a methodological template for the study of a national cinema in a transnational horizon

The Euro-American Cinema Peter Lev, 2014-05-23 From as scholar of mass communications an international study of the influence of Hollywood movies on twentieth century European art films With McDonalds in Moscow and Disneyland in Paris and Tokyo American popular culture is spreading around the globe Regional national and ethnic cultures are being powerfully affected by competition from American values and American popular forms This literate and lively study explores the spread of American culture into international cinema as reflected by the collision and partial merger of two important styles of filmmaking the Hollywood style of stars genres and action and the European art film style of ambiguity authorial commentary and borrowings from other arts Peter Lev departs from the traditional approach of national cinema histories and discusses some of the blends overlaps and hegemonies that are typical of the world film industry of recent years In Part One he gives a historical and theoretical overview of what he terms the Euro American art film which is characterized by prominent use of the English language a European art film director cast and crew from at least two countries and a stylistic mixing of European art film and American entertainment The second part of Lev s study examines in detail five examples of the Euro American art film Contempt 1963 Blow Up 1966 The Canterbury Tales 1972 Paris Texas 1983 and The Last Emperor 1987 These case studies reveal that the European art film has had a strong influence on world cinema and that many Euro American films are truly cultural blends rather than abject takeovers by Hollywood cinema

Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema
