Global Religious and Secular Dynamics José Casanova,2019-08-12 Global Religious and Secular Dynamics offers a global historical perspective that integrates European theories of modern secularization and competing theories of global religious revival as interrelated dynamics In the first section Casanova examines the emergence of the modern religious secular binary system of classification within a critical review of mile Durkheim s and Max Weber s divergent theories of religion The modern system of classification is contrasted with the pre axial one in which all reality was organized according to the binary sacred profane and with the post axial one which was organized according to the binary transcendent immanent The second and third sections contrast the internal European road of secularization without religious pluralization with the external colonial road of global intercultural and religious encounters particularly in Asia that led to the global system of religious pluralism The final section examines the contemporary intertwinement of religious and secular dynamics through the globalization of the immanent frame and the expansion of global denominationalism

Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville,2011-10-20 Edward Said s Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said s work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said s own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said s work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said s use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said s work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it

Radical Secularization? Stijn Latré, Walter Van Herck, Guido Vanheeswijck, 2014-12-18 What does it mean for a society to be secular Answering this question from a philosophical angle

Radical Secularization delves into the philosophical presuppositions of secularization Which cultural evolutions made secularization possible International scholars from different disciplines assess the answers given by many leading philosophers such as among others L with Blumenberg and Habermas Germany Gauchet and Nancy France Taylor and Bellah North America They examine the theory that secularization cannot only be regarded as a cultural change that was forced upon religion from an external source e g science but should also be considered as a phenomenon triggered by motives internal to religion If religions are indeed capable of inner transformations the question arises whether religions can persist in the secular societies they inadvertently helped to bring about and how secular societies may accommodate religion

Sacred and Secular Pippa Norris, 2004 The belief that religion was dying became the conventional wisdom in the social sciences during most of the 20th century However religion has not disappeared and is unlikely to do so and the secularization thesis needs updating This text develops a theory of secularization and existential security Theology and Social Theory John Milbank, 2008-04-15 This is a revised edition of John Milbank s masterpiece which sketches the outline of a specifically theological social theory The Times Higher Education Supplement wrote of the first edition that it was a tour de force of systematic theology It would be churlish not to acknowledge its provocation and brilliance Featured in The Church Times 100 Best Christian Books Brings this classic work up to date by reviewing the development of modern social thought Features a substantial new introduction by Milbank clarifying the theoretical basis for his work Challenges the notion that sociological critiques of theology are scientific Outlines a specifically theological social theory and in doing so engages with a wide range of thinkers from Plato to Deleuze Written by one of the world s most influential contemporary theologians and the author of numerous books The Coloniality of the Secular Yountae An, 2023-12-15 In The Coloniality of the Secular An Yountae investigates the collusive ties between the modern concepts of the secular religion race and coloniality in the Americas Drawing on the work of douard Glissant Frantz Fanon Aim C saire Sylvia Wynter and Enrique Dussel An maps the intersections of revolutionary non Western thought with religious ideas to show how decoloniality redefines the sacred as an integral part of its liberation vision He examines these thinkers rejection of colonial religions and interrogates the narrow conception of religion that confines it within colonial power structures An explores decoloniality s conception of the sacred in relation to revolutionary violence gender creolization and racial phenomenology demonstrating its potential for reshaping religious paradigms Pointing out that the secular has been pivotal to regulating racial hierarchies under colonialism he advocates for a broader understanding of religion that captures the fundamental ideas that drive decolonial thinking By examining how decolonial theory incorporates the sacred into its vision of liberation An invites readers to rethink the transformative power of decoloniality and religion to build a hopeful future
