

The book cover features a dark, atmospheric photograph of a city at night. In the background, several tall, illuminated skyscrapers rise against a deep blue sky. In the foreground, a bridge or highway is visible, with blurred streaks of red and white light from moving vehicles, suggesting a long-exposure shot. The overall mood is urban and contemplative.

Seduction Of Place The City In The Twenty First Century:

The Seduction of Place Joseph Rykwert, 2000 Lonely and emotionally impaired everyman Jimmy Corrigan is given the opportunity to meet the father he never had This is the spark for an improvisatory romance which gingerly ignores all sense of plot and drama The reader is transported between 1890 s Chicago and 1980 s small town Michigan helped along by thousands of coloured illustrations and diagrams which provide a startling illusion of life and movement The bulk of the book is supported by fold out instructions an index paper cut outs and brief notes The Deck Access Housing Design Guide Andrew Beharrell, Rory Olcayto, 2023-01-31 Shortlisted for the Architectural Book Awards 2024 The Deck Access Housing Design Guide is the first practical design guide to deck access housing It focuses on the contemporary use of deck access housing sharing practical guidance and providing in depth case studies while also presenting historical context about this flexible and evolving housing type Despite a chequered history that saw it linked with urban decay and social malaise in the 1970s and 80s deck access housing today after a 40 year hiatus is fast becoming the default solution for mid rise housing in the UK and London in particular This is in part down to architects renewed interest in post war Modernist typologies but also due to specific planning standards that favour the qualities dual aspect plans public front doors of deck access design This comprehensive professional guide spotlights the best contemporary deck access housing in the UK and throughout mainland Europe explaining and analysing exemplars in detail Illustrated in full colour throughout with plans elevations photographs project data and annotations case studies include both new build and retrofit projects in public housing co housing and Third Age residential projects Good architectural practice flows from an informed understanding of cultural and design history coupled with practical guidance and clear analysis of case studies That is what this book provides for anyone interested in or involved in the design and delivery of deck access housing Featured architects from the UK AHMM Apparata Cartwright Pickard Collective Architecture DO Architecture Hawkins Brown Haworth Tompkins Henley Halebrown Levitt Bernstein Maccreanor Lavington M Matthew Lloyd Pitman Tozer Pollard Thomas Edwards Proctor Matthews PRP RCKa Featured architects from mainland Europe ANMA Arquitectura Producciones Atelier Kempe Thill Bureau Massa DAMAST Estudio Herreros Fink Jocher KAAAN LEVS Martin L f MEF Mu oz Miranda Passelac Roques Waechter Waechter Topophilia and Topophobia Xing Ruan, Paul Hogben, 2020-10-28 This book is about the love and hate relations that humans establish with their habitat which have been coined by discerning modern thinkers as topophilia and topophobia Whilst such affiliations with the topos our manmade as well as natural habitat have been traced back to antiquity a wide range of twentieth century cases are studied here and reflected upon by dwelling on this framework The book provides a timely reminder that the qualitative aspects of the topos sensual as well as intellectual should not be disregarded in the face of rapid technological development and the mass of building that has occurred since the turn of the millennium Topophilia and Topophobia offers speculative and historical reflections on the human habitat of the century that has just passed authored by some of the world

s leading scholars and architects including Joseph Rykwert Yi Fu Tuan Vittorio Gregotti and Jean Louis Cohen Human habitats ranging broadly from the cities of the twentieth century highbrow modern architecture both in Western countries and in Asia to non architect planner designed vernacular settlements and landscapes are reviewed under the themes of topophilia and topophobia across the disciplines of architecture landscape studies philosophy human geography and urban planning

The Making of Sporting Cultures John Hughson, 2013-09-13 The Making of Sporting Cultures presents an analysis of western sport by examining how the collective passions and feelings of people have contributed to the making of sport as a way of life The popularity of sport is so pronounced in some cases that we speak of certain sports as national pastimes Baseball in the United States soccer in Britain and cricket in the Caribbean are among the relevant examples discussed Rather than regarding the historical development of sport as the outcome of passive spectator reception this work is interested in how sporting cultures have been made and developed over time through the active engagement of its enthusiasts This is to study the history of sport not only from below but also from within as a means to understanding the deep relationship between sport and people within class contexts the middle class as well as the working class Contestation over the making of sport along axes of race gender and class are discussed where relevant A range of cultural writers and theorists are examined in regard to both how their writing can help us understand the making of sport and as to how sport might be located within an overall cultural context in different places and times The book will appeal to students and academics within humanities disciplines such as cultural studies history and sociology and to those in sport studies programmes interested in the historical cultural and social aspects of sport This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Siena Fabrizio Nevola, 2007-01-01 Weaving together social political economic and architectural history this book explores the role of key patrons in Siena s urban projects including Pope Pius II Piccolomini and his family and the quasi despot Pandolfo Petrucci

Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg, Wendy Martin, 2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field

Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman, 2007-05-07 Utopian thought though commonly characterized as projecting a future without a past depends on golden models for re invention of what is Through a detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects who sought to represent a utopian content in their work and a consideration of the thoughts of a range of leading writers Coleman offers the reader a unique perspective of idealism in architectural design With unparalleled depth and focus of vision on the work of Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck this book persuasively challenges predominant assumptions in current architectural discourse forging a new approach to the invention of welcoming built environments and transcending the limitations of both the postmodern and hyper modern stance and orthodox modernist architecture

Blueprint for Reconstruction Vincent Frank Bedogne, 2010-04-14 Inspired by a vision of soaring towers high speed transit cars pristine skies and blossoming gardens we move beyond today's automobile based urban model and embrace a design where the freedom of the individual is paramount and the human energy that defines city life flows unimpeded within an urban matrix engineered to allow for its highest expression Author Vincent Frank Bedogne drafts a blueprint for what humanity's Evolution of Consciousness and adoption of Economics of Fulfillment make it possible to achieve perfection of life on earth We draw a plan for reconstruction of the earth's urban and ecological infrastructure the city of tomorrow the countryside of tomorrow how we will get around and communicate We embrace a new environmentalism explore future sources of energy reveal the solution to humanity's present energy crisis and look at how we will build to withstand the climatic rigors imposed by a biosphere in evolution

Discourse and Crisis Antoon De Rycker, Zuraidah Mohd Don, 2013-12-15 Discourse and Crisis Critical perspectives brings together an exciting collection of studies into crisis as text and context as unfolding process and unresolved problem Crisis is viewed as a complex phenomenon that in its prevalence disruptiveness and appearance of inevitability is both socially produced and discursively constituted The book offers multiple critical perspectives in depth linguistically informed analyses of the discourses of power and collaboration implicated in crisis construal and recovery detailed examination of the critical role that language plays during the crisis life cycle and further problematization of the semiotic material complexity of crisis and its usefulness as an analytical concept The research focus is on the discursive and interactive mediation of crisis in organizational political and media texts The volume contains contributions from across the world offering a polyphonic overview of discourse and crisis research This impressive volume will be useful to researchers and academics working on the intersection of crisis language and communication It is also of interest to practitioners in organizational management politics and policy and media

Tragic Views of the Human Condition Lourens Minnema, 2013-06-06 Can tragic views of the human condition as known to Westerners through Greek and Shakespearean tragedy be identified outside European culture in the Indian culture of Hindu epic drama In what respects can the Mahabharata epic's and the Bhagavadgita's views of the human condition be called tragic in the Greek and Shakespearean senses of the word Tragic views of the human condition are primarily embedded in stories Only afterwards are these views expounded in theories of tragedy and in philosophical anthropologies Minnema identifies these embedded views of human nature by discussing the ways in which tragic stories raise a variety of anthropological issues issues such as coping with evil suffering war death values power sacrifice ritual communication gender honour injustice knowledge fate freedom Each chapter represents one cluster of tragic issues that are explored in terms of their particular Greek English Indian settings before being compared cross culturally In the end the underlying question is are Indian views of the human condition very different from Western views

The Great Inversion and the Future of the American City Alan Ehrenhalt, 2013-01-22 Eye opening and thoroughly engaging this is an indispensable look at American urban suburban society and its future In The Great Inversion Alan Ehrenhalt one of our leading urbanologists reveals how the roles of America's cities and suburbs are changing places young adults and affluent retirees moving in while immigrants and the less affluent are moving out and addresses the implications of these shifts for the future of our society Ehrenhalt shows us how the commercial canyons of lower Manhattan are becoming residential neighborhoods and how mass transit has revitalized inner city communities in Chicago and Brooklyn He explains why car dominated cities like Phoenix and Charlotte have sought to build twenty first century downtowns from scratch while sprawling postwar suburbs are seeking to attract young people with their own form of urbanized experience

The Seduction of Place Joseph Rykwert, 2000 Lonely and emotionally impaired everyman Jimmy Corrigan is given the opportunity to meet the father he never had This is the spark for an improvisatory romance which gingerly ignores all sense of plot and drama The reader is transported between 1890's Chicago and 1980's small town Michigan helped along by thousands of coloured illustrations and diagrams which provide a startling illusion of life and movement The bulk of the book is supported by fold out instructions an index paper cut outs and brief notes

The Patina of Place Kingston Wm Heath, 2001 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the booming textile industry turned many New England towns and villages into industrialized urban centers This rapid urbanization transformed not only the economic base but the regional identity of communities such as New Bedford as new housing forms emerged to accommodate the largely immigrant workforce of the mills

Twenty-First Century Urbanism Rob Sullivan, 2017-09-04 This volume argues that the city cannot be captured by any one mode of analysis but instead is composed of the mobile relational efficient sentient and the phenomenological with all of them cast in new theoretical configurations and combined into one methodological entity Rather than focusing on any one city or abstract analytical model this book instead takes a multipronged theoretical and methodological approach to present the city as an intelligent affective organism a sentient being It proposes that cities operate on a relational mobile and phenomenological basis through the mode of efficiency calibrated by a profoundly complicated division of labor Its starting point is that the city is a mobile unit of analysis from its economic status to its demographic makeup from its cultural configuration to its environmental conditions and therefore easily evades our quantitative and qualitative methods of computation and comprehension Twenty First Century Urbanism provides planning and urban design academics and students with a multifaceted approach to understanding the development of cities encouraging the examination of cities through a myriad non linear approach

Visualizing the City Alan Marcus, Dietrich Neumann, 2024-11-01 This anthology presents a range of interdisciplinary

explorations into the urban environment through film photography digital imagery maps and signage Contributors examine our fascination with the city through the history of art and architecture urban studies environmental studies cultural geography and screen studies Bringing together a wide spectrum of urban contexts Visualizing the City's diverse essays explore visual representations of urbanism and modernity reflected through the prism of global cultures using an engaging variety of methods and texts

The Form of Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2008-04-15 The Form of Cities offers readers a considered theoretical introduction to the art of designing cities Demonstrates that cities are replete with symbolic values collective memory association and conflict Proposes a new theoretical understanding of urban design based in political economy Demonstrates different ways of conceptualising the city whether through aesthetics or the prism of gender for example Written in an engaging and jargon free style but retains a sophisticated interpretative edge Complements Designing Cities by the same author Blackwell 2003

The Sites of Rome David H. J. Larmour, Diana Spencer, 2007-11-01 Rome was a building site for much of its history a city continually reshaped and reconstituted in line with political and cultural change In later times the conjunction of ruins and rebuilding lent the cityscape a particularly fascinating character much exploited by artists and writers This layering and changing of vistas also finds expression in the literary tradition from classical times right up to the twenty first century This collection of essays offers glimpses sideways glances and unexpected angles that open up Rome in its widest possible sense and explores how the visible components of Rome the hills the Tiber the temples the Forums the Colosseum the statues and monuments operate as or become the sites sights of Rome The analyses are informed by contemporary critical thinking and draw on ancient historical narrative Roman poetry Renaissance literature and cartography art of the Grand Tour era Russian and Soviet interpretations and twentieth century cinema

Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does

All Roads Lead to the American City Peter Swirski, 2007-04-01 All Roads Lead to the American City provides an original view of the urban culture in America seen through its irrevocable ties with the cities and roads Examining the history cinema literature cultural myths and social geography of the United States the book puts some of the greatest as well as the baddest American cities under the microscope Taking the role of the roads that crisscross and connect the cities as their shared point of reference these essays explore ways to understand the people who live commute work create govern commit crime and conduct business in them Cities for the most part are America Their values and problems define not only what the United States is but what other nations perceive the United States to be Roads and transportation on the other hand and their impact on the American culture and lifestyle form not only the integral part of the historical rise and shine of the modern city but a physical release from and a cultural antidote to its pressure cooker stresses Tracing the boundless variety and complexity of these twin themes All Roads Lead to the American City is built around an interlinked series of essays on the urban culture in America Juxtaposing the city and the road it looks alternatively at cities as historical geographical social and cultural centres of life in the land and at roads as physical as well as metaphorical arteries that lead in and out of the city

The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent s history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past
