Hey, Valerie

Seductions Studies In Reading And Culture:

Seductions Jane Miller, 1991 One of the deadliest of seductions for feminists is their seduction by theorists by theories With this boldly polemical stroke Jane Miller begins her exploration stealthily cumulatively and with a deft and compelling intelligence In looking at the complex relation of women to culture and literature and to theory and politics and in recalling her own coming to feminism she asks how women experience themselves within ideas and traditions which simultaneously include and exclude them take their presence for granted and deny it Seduction as a category binds together the ambivalence the pleasure and the invisible coercions of male female relations while at the same time transgressing the implicit imperative in patriarchal societies to confine eroticism and its politics to the closet Seductions consists of five loosely connected almost autonomous chapters which nevertheless trace a historical progression from the eighteenth century to the present Miller borrows Antonio Gramsci's idea of hegemony using it to contextualize her readings of two famous literary seductions as told through Richardson's Clarissa and Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility The second chapter focuses on Raymond Williams novels and criticism using them to chart the larger exclusions of feminism by Marxism The author enlists Carolyn Steedman's Landscape for a Good Woman in an attempt to survey Williams telling silences The third chapter reconstructs and analyzes the life and career of Clara Collet Miller's great aunt close friend of George Gissing civil servant and expert on women's education and work Through Collet Miller bestows individual color on the pressures inflicted on professional women to assume male perspectives and procedures The fourth chapter is superb Bracketed by discussions of Charlotte Brontë's Villette and Toni Morrison's Beloved it questions influential treatments of colonialism and orientalism which use women as a metaphor without listening for the testimony of real women It is a moving plea to set the category of women alongside more privileged categories of class and race The final chapter counterpoints the internal contradictions in the polyphonic theories of Bakhtin and Volosinov with an account of women's distrust of other women in Margaret Atwood's Cat's Eye By ending with an evocation of women's self dislike Miller emphasizes the chilling ways in which cultural exclusions and degradations of women are internalized and replicated by complicitous victims

Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas

Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This

Orientalism and Religion Richard King, 2013-04-03 Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology

Women and the Media Maggie Andrews, Sallie McNamara, 2014-04-24 The media have played a significant role in the contested and changing social position of women in Britain since the 1900s They have facilitated feminism by both providing discourses and images from which women can construct their identities and offering spaces where hegemonic ideas of femininity can be reworked This volume is intended to provide an overview of work on Broadcasting Film and Print Media from 1900 while appealing to scholars of History and Media Film and Cultural Studies This edited collection features tightly focused and historically contextualised case studies which showcase current research on women and media in Britain since the 1900s The case studies explore media directed at a particularly female audience such as Woman's Hour and magazines such as Vogue Woman and Marie Claire Women who work in the media issues of production and regulation are discussed alongside the representation of women across a broad range of media from early 20th century motorcycling magazines Page 3 and regional television news

Orientalism A. L. Macfie, 2019-08-05 No detailed description available for Orientalism

Scenes of Subjection: Terror, Slavery, and Self-Making in Nineteenth-Century America Saidiya Hartman, 2022-10-11 The groundbreaking debut by the award winning author of Wayward Lives Beautiful Experiments revised and updated Saidiya Hartman has been praised as one of our most brilliant contemporary thinkers Claudia Rankine New York Times Book Review and a lodestar for a generation of students and increasingly for politically engaged people outside the academy Alexis Okeowo The New Yorker In Scenes of Subjection Hartman's first book now revised and expanded her singular talents and analytical framework turn away from the terrible spectacle and toward the forms of routine terror and quotidian violence characteristic of slavery illuminating the intertwining of injury subjugation and selfhood even in abolitionist depictions of enslavement By attending to the withheld and overlooked at the margins of the historical archive Hartman radically reshapes our understanding of history in a work as resonant today as it was on first publication now for a new generation of readers This 25th anniversary edition features a new preface by the author a foreword by Keeanga Yamahtta Taylor an afterword by Marisa J Fuentes and Sarah Haley notations with Cameron Rowland and compositions by Torkwase Dyson

The Company She Keeps Hey, Valerie,1997-01-01 This lively and revealing study explores a sociologically invisible but important social relationship girls friendships It uncovers often suppressed school girl cultures at times representing in their most condensed and dramatic form issues of intimacy secrecy and struggle Most women have memories of and most mothers of young daughters become re immersed in these all consuming but little understood passions This taken for granted ordinary relationship is examined using girls notes talk diaries and interviews gathered by observing girls groups within city schools An important and previously ignored question is addressed by examining how girls intimacy is structured through class gender sexuality and race especially its paradoxical role in maintaining and challenging compulsory heterosexuality In this way a series of case studies analyses how girls variously come to understand and construct difference In addition this detailed analysis of girls friendship contributes to our understanding of how girls simultaneously survive their schools their families their relations and subordination to boys and men Valerie Hey returns the reader to the terrain of loss and recollection of girls pleasure and pain in their friendship and asserts the claims of the social through identifying how this is written into the cultural forms of girls relationships with each other Students of women s studies education sociology and social psychology will find this book to be an invaluable exploration of how every day obvious experience is played out as forms of subjectivity and power

Postmodern Revisionings of the Political Anna Yeatman,2014-02-25 A challenging reassessment of the concepts and institutions of modern liberal democracy in the light of postmodern theory and the politics of difference

Female Stories, Female Bodies Lidia Curti,1998-01-19 This interdisciplinary book explores women s narratives in a wide variety of media and genre from soap opera and film to the post modern novel and Shakespearian drama Adopting an innovative feminist perspective it focuses particularly on the themes of hybridity and monstrosity in language and the body In doing so it raises issues to do with closure and temporal and spatial dislocation drawing on themes of passion paranoia and desire

Raymond Williams Elizabeth Eldridge,John Eldridge,2005-10-10 This book provides a critical introduction to the full range of Williams work fiction and non fiction It assesses the significance of his contribution in understanding culture politics and society Fair minded accurate and sensitive the book makes crucial connections between the different aspects of Williams work and the underlying concern for a democratic polity which informed it

study of the returned gaze from the cinema screen demonstrating that the films that we watch watch us guide us control our gaze and enforce societal codes      Political Gender Sally Ledger, Josephine McDonagh, Jane Spencer, 2014-07-10 In recent years feminist scholars through their insistence on the key role of gender in critical analysis have brought about a profound revitalization of literary and cultural studies This text draws together work by leading exponents in the field The essays explore the operations of gender in the production of knowledge and the formation of cultural representations in a wide variety of contexts from German romantic poetry to the literature of AIDS from Victorian ethnography to tabloid constructions of race All of the essays engage in problems of representation intervening in current debates in critical theory

Critical Theory and Practice: A Coursebook Keith Green, Jill LeBihan, 2006-10-19 Critical Theory and Practice answers lots of questions but also stimulates new ones Its tailor made combination of survey reader and workbook is ideal for the beginning perhaps even bewildered student of literary theory The work is divided into seven chapters each of which contains guiding commentary examples from literary and critical works and a variety of exercises to provoke and engage you Each chapter includes a glossary and annotated selection of suggested further reading There is also a full bibliography The authors cover the key issues and debates of literary theory including Language Linguistics and Literature Structures of Literature Literature and History Subjectivity Psychoanalysis and Criticism Reading Writing and Reception Women Literature and Criticism Literature Criticism and Cultural Identity Critical Theory and Practice is an refreshingly clear up to date and eminently readable introduction to the subject It not only guides you through the terminology and gives you a selection of the key passages to read it also helps you engage with the theory and apply it in practice      Edward Said Valerie Kennedy, 2013-04-24 Edward Said is one of the foremost thinkers writing today His work as a literary and cultural critic a political commentator and the champion of the cause of Palestinian rights has given him a unique position in western intellectual life This new book is a major exploration and assessment of his writings in all these main areas Focusing on Said s insistence on the connection between literature politics and culture Kennedy offers an overview and assessment of the main strands of Said s work drawing out the links and contradictions between each area The book begins with an examination of Orientalism one of the founding texts of post colonial studies Kennedy looks at the book in detail probing both its strengths and weaknesses and linking it to its sequel Culture and Imperialism She then examines Said s work on the Palestinian people with his emphasis on the need for a Palestinian narrative to counter pro Israeli accounts of the Middle East and his searing criticisms of US Israeli and even Arab governments The book closes with an examination of Said s importance in the field of post colonial studies notably colonial discourse analysis and post colonial theory and his significance as a public intellectual This book will be of great interest to anyone studying post colonialism literary theory politics and the Middle East as well as anyone interested in Said s writings      Thamyris Nanny M. W. de Vries, Jan Best,      Francophone Writing in Transition Peter Dunwoodie, 2005 In this volume Francophone Algerian writing is studied as the hesitant articulation of strategies of alternative representation and however modest of deviance as a form of resistance      Carnivalizing Difference Peter I. Barta, Paul Allen Miller, Charles Platter, David Shepherd, 2013-06-17 It has seemed at times that there is no neutral territory between those who see Bakhtin as the practitioner of a kind of neo Marxist or at least materialist deconstruction and those who look at the same texts and see a defender of traditional liberal humanist values and classical conceptions of order a conservative in the true sense of the term Arising from a conference under the same title held at Texas Tech University Carnivalizing Difference seeks to explore the actual and possible relationships between Bakhtinian theory and cultural practice The introduction explores the changing configurations of our understanding of Bakhtin s work in the context of recent theory and outlines how that understanding can inform and be informed by culture both ancient and modern Eleven articles spanning a wide range of periods and cultural forms then address these issues in detail revealing the ways in which Bakhtinian thought illuminates sometimes obfuscates but always challenges      The Routledge Companion to Feminism and Postfeminism Sarah Gamble, 2004-11-23 Approachable for general readers as well as for students in women s studies related courses at all levels this invaluable guide follows the unique Companion format in combining over a dozen in depth background chapters with more than 400 A Z dictionary entries The background chapters are written by major figures in the field of feminist studies and include thorough coverage of the history of feminism as well as extensive discussions of topics such as Postfeminism Men in Feminism Feminism and New Technologies and Feminism and Philosophy The dictionary entries cover the major individuals and issues essential to an understanding both of feminism s roots and of the trends that are shaping its future Readers will find entries on people such as Aphra Behn Simone de Beauvoir Princess Diana Courtney Love and Robert Bly and on subjects such as Afro American feminism cosmetic surgery the new man prostitution reproductive technologies and slasher films
