

The background of the image shows a child's artwork on the left, featuring a purple and red drawing. To the right, a tree trunk is visible. In the upper right, a blurred outdoor scene with green grass and distant figures can be seen. A black rectangular box with white text is overlaid on the center of the image.

At popups, we see incredible play unfold—but we also hear a lot of play policing. It's usually well-meaning, intended to keep kids safe or help them navigate social situations. But the words we use can unintentionally send messages that shut play down rather than support it.
