Seeing Anthropology Karl G. Heider, 1997 Accompanying videocassettes include short ethnographically accurate films on a wide range of culture types and world areas which contribute to the subject of the chapters Seeing Anthropology Karl G. Heider, 2004 Seeing Anthropology continues to be the only cultural anthropology text available that allows for easy integration of ethnographic films into the introductory cultural anthropology course This text truly incorporates films within the text by blending textbook content with fourteen ethnographic film clips that are put in the hands of students More flexible ordering options are available with the new edition See New to this Edition section below One reviewer says The greatest strengths of this text are its unique and skillful use of film clips to enhance student learning I can think of no better way to extend student learning in anthropology than the use of films and there is no one more qualified to select and present anthropological films than the author of this book American Journal of Physical Anthropology, 2001 Bibliography in physical anthropology 1942 43 in Dec issue Program of the ... Annual Meeting of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists American Association of Physical Anthropologists. Meeting, 2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971 Cultural Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak, 1986 Resources in Education, 1999-10 Seeing Anthropology Karl G. Heider, Pamela Ann Reese Blakely, Thomas Dustin Blakely, 2007 Seeing Anthropology continues to be the only cultural anthropology text available that allows for easy integration of ethnographic films into the introductory cultural anthropology course This text truly incorporates films within the text by blending textbook content with sixteen ethnographic film clips that are put in the hands of students One reviewer says The greatest strengths of this text are its unique and skillful use of film clips to enhance student learning I can think of no better way to extend student learning in anthropology than the use of films Talking About People: Readings in Cultural Anthropology William Haviland, Robert Gordon, Luis Vivanco, 2006 How do people learn and experience their culture How do people make a living What does it mean to be in a family How do we make sense of peoples beliefs and ritual practices In exploring questions such as these this cultural anthropology reader focuses on contemporary global concerns and includes a significant number of articles by authors from outside the United States A dynamic development in the fourth edition is the inclusion of Anthropology and Public Debate sections in which opposing anthropological arguments on current hot topics are featured In addition Doing Fieldwork essays consider the nature and dilemmas of fieldwork the changing status of the field the nature of anthropological learning in the field and ethical issues and dilemmas Anthropology Newsletter, 1994 Seeing Anthropology Karl G. Heider, Herbert L. Ziegler, 2000-09 This is the only book video package for cultural anthropology This book truly incorporates films within the text This unique package allows the reader to view the films in class or at home A Cold War Tourist and His Camera Martha Langford, John Langford, 2011-01-27 Martha Langford and John Langford examine their father s apparently innocuous photographic experience revealing the complexity of both the images and their creator An intelligent and personal look at the ways that the historical and the private are represented and remembered A Cold War Tourist and His Camera stages the family slide show as you've never seen it before

Music and the Skillful Listener Denise Von Glahn, 2013-04-09 For Denise Von Glahn listening is that special quality afforded women who have been fettered for generations by the maxim be seen and not heard In Music and the Skillful Listener Von Glahn explores the relationship between listening and musical composition focusing on nine American women composers inspired by the sounds of the natural world Amy Beach Marion Bauer Louise Talma Pauline Oliveros Joan Tower Ellen Taaffe Zwilich Victoria Bond Libby Larsen and Emily Doolittle Von Glahn situates nature composing among the larger tradition of nature writing and argues that like their literary sisters works of these women express deeply held spiritual and aesthetic beliefs about nature Drawing on a wealth of archival and original source material Von Glahn skillfully employs literary and gender studies ecocriticism and ecomusicology and the larger world of contemporary musicological thought to tell the stories of nine women composers who seek to understand nature through music

Attention in Performance Cassis Kilian, 2021-03-25 This book elucidates how learning from actors enables an intense education of attention for anthropologists Actors perform the perception of sunshine the sensation of pain affects such as shock and emotions such as happiness they act quarrels erotic attraction leadership and submission on stage In order to achieve that they undergo an education of attention allowing them to develop skills that are also useful for anthropologists particularly when doing research on phenomena that often elude academic procedures Drawing on her own acting experiences and ongoing research with actors from Africa and Europe Cassis Kilian takes up Tim Ingold's manifold proposals to reconfigure anthropological research She introduces approaches actors use to explore the complexity of human life and its bodily sensual and emotional dimensions which can be difficult for academics to grasp when examining topics such as everyday practices traumatic experiences and power relations Though the book discerns pitfalls in anthropological research and suggests artistic approaches to overcome them it values anthropology as a discipline whose radical self-reflexive approach allows for such experiments Including exercises and practical approaches this is valuable reading for scholars interested in anthropological methods sensory anthropology perception and materiality and theatre anthropology
