COVID-19 and the Left Elena Louisa Lange,Geoff Shullenberger,2024-05-07 The COVID 19 pandemic and the measures introduced to purportedly contain its spread have wrought an unprecedented global social transformation Authoritarian measures such as lockdowns vaccine mandates and the enforced wearing of facemasks have led to a biopolitical disenfranchisement of human rights and the encroachment of state and corporate directives onto private lives By supporting these measures the left has lost sight of its traditional critique of capital the state and class society and has instead reinforced existing power structures in the name of saving lives In doing so the left has contributed to widespread suffering especially among the vulnerable groups in society the measures claimed to protect particularly children the elderly and the poor COVID 19 and the Left explores why the left has departed from its self understanding as a critical force against state power unfettered capital accumulation the digital transformation biopolitics and a politics of social discrimination and instead has largely assumed a stance in line with the neoliberal consensus In particular the essays in this collection explore the role of fear panic and psychological blackmailing as a tool of domination in late capitalist society and consider whether the left has been a victim or an active perpetrator of a tyranny of fear Drawing upon approaches from various disciplines and interrogating shibboleths on the left and right the essays in this volume consider the ideological sociocultural and economic implications of the historical rupture that the COVID 19 pandemic presents and instead argue for a counter narrative to fear and its harmful consequences This provocative collection will be of considerable interest to those with an interest in the contemporary left and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic The Cuba Interviews T.
