Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters, 2011-07-01 A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love justice community and reconciliation among others engage the issues of economics education family life public health ethnic relations and religious life in the urban environment Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God's activity Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same
