Globally, K-8 Barbara A. Lehman, Evelyn B. Freeman, Patricia L. Scharer, 2010-09-20 In Reading Globally K-8 the authors make the case for why it is necessary to be globally literate and multiculturally aware in today's shrinking world and they provide the tools teachers need to incorporate appropriate reading selections into primary and secondary school classrooms. By using books from or about other countries teachers empower students to view the world in a more positive manner enriching and broadening their students' lives and ultimately preparing them for life in a global economy and culture. This reader-friendly resource guides teachers and reading programme coordinators in selecting quality books for their classrooms incorporating global literature into different content areas and facilitating the discussions that follow. Practical guidance is provided on how to integrate the reading of global texts across the curriculum with specific application to language arts, social studies, science, maths and the arts. Locate and evaluate the authenticity and literary merit of potential books avoiding those that depict stereotypes. Get started with an annotated list of children's books, samples of student work and classroom vignettes from teachers.

Writing Sense Juli Kendall, Outey Khuon, 2023-10-10 Writing is all about making meaning. The prospect of teaching writing to a classroom full of students, some who speak English and some who don't, can be overwhelming. When students learning English are at different levels the task is even more challenging. Writing Sense: Integrated Reading and Writing Lessons for English Language Learners outlines the classroom conditions necessary for successful writing instruction with English language learners whether in writing workshop and or small group instruction. It includes 68 classroom tested lessons for grades K-8 that show kids at all levels of language acquisition how to make connections, ask questions, visualize, make mental images, infer, determine importance, synthesize, monitor meaning and comprehension and use fix-up strategies. The five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency and lessons are divided into younger and older students spanning kindergarten through to grade eight. There are extensive lists of suggested books for mentor texts as well as lists of mentor authors to facilitate teachers planning and instruction.

Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings. The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley's introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works

Avant Canada Gregory Betts, Christian Bök, 2019-01-10 Avant Canada presents a rich collection of original essays and creative works on a representative array of avant garde literary movements in Canada from the past fifty years From the work of Leonard Cohen and bpNichol to that of Jordan Abel and Liz Howard Avant Canada features twenty eight of the best writers and critics in the field The book proposes four dominant modes of avant garde production Concrete Poetics which accentuates the visual and material aspects of language Language Writing which challenges the interconnection between words and things Identity Writing which interrogates the self and its sociopolitical position and Copyleft Poetics which undermines our habitual assumptions about the ownership of expression A fifth section commemorates the importance of the Centennial in the 1960s at a time when avant garde cultures in Canada began to emerge Readers of this book will become familiar with some of the most challenging works of literature and their creators that this country has ever produced From Concrete Poetry in the 1960s through to Indigenous Literature in the 2010s Avant Canada offers the most sweeping study of the literary avant garde in Canada to date

□□□ □□, 1997 Text, Extratext, Metatext and Paratext in Translation Valerie Pellatt, 2014-01-08 This volume brings together research on a variety of paratextual and peritextual elements of translation of German Chinese and Czech source texts The explication seen as necessary to translated texts is a part of this growing field as researchers investigate the influence of writing which purports to help the reader's understanding of a text The articles included here demonstrate the impact of paratextual and peritextual elements on the way a text is produced and received Publishers both consciously and unconsciously may manipulate the presentation of a text to appeal to a certain readership while writers of prefatorial explanatory and critical material base their paratextual interpretation on their own perceptions and political leanings The articles in the volume focus on significant literary texts by writers such as Christa Wolf and Mao Zedong

Regional novels of Taiwan modern and traditional poetry and children s stories are not exempt from the power of paratext and some genres such as the literary mystification texts published in the Czech Republic are purposefully designed to mislead the reader The articles in the volume help to dispel the notion that translation and the paratext which surrounds it and of which it is a part are innocent Poeticized Language Jean-Jacques Thomas, Steven Winspur, 2010-11-01

Beyond Identity Attila Dósa, 2009 In Beyond Identity thirteen of Scotland s best known poets reflect upon the theoretical practical and political considerations involved in the act of writing They furnish a unique guide to contemporary Scottish poetry discussing a range of issues that include nationhood education language religion landscape translation and identity John Burnside Robert Crawford Douglas Dunn Kathleen Jamie Edwin Morgan Kenneth White and others together with such noted experimentalists as Frank Kuppner Tom Leonard and Richard Price explore questions about the relationship between social economic and ecological realities and their poetic transformation These interviews are set within the altered political context that followed from the re establishment of a Scottish Parliament in 1999 and the potential of a renewed engagement with wider European culture Attila Dosa is Senior Lecturer at the Department of English at the University of Miskolc in northern Hungary
