Unger, A. Walton Litz, Molly Weigel, Jay Parini, 1974 The four volume set consists of ninety seven of the pamphlets originally published as the University of Minnesota pamphlets on American writers Some have been revised and updated Marmon Silko's Ceremony Allan Chavkin, 2002-01-24 Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony the most important novel of the Native American Renaissance is among the most most widely taught and studied novels in higher education today In it Silko recounts a young man's search for consolation in his tribe's history and traditions and his resulting voyage of self discovery and discovery of the world The fourteen essays in this casebook include a variety of theoretical approaches and provide the reader with crucial information especially on Native American beliefs that will enhance their understanding and appreciation of this contemporary classic The collection also includes two interviews with Silko in which she explains the importance of the oral tradition and storytelling along with autobiographical basis of the novel The United Stories of America Rolf Lundén, 2022-06-08 This book discusses the American short story composite or short story cycle a neglected form of writing consisting of autonomous stories interlocking into a whole The critical work done on this genre has so far focused on the closural strategies of the composites on how unity is accomplished in these texts This study takes into consideration to a greater degree than earlier criticism the short story composite as an open work emphasizing the tension between the independent stories and the unified work between the discontinuity and fragmentation on the one hand and the totalizing strategies on the other The discussion of the genre is illustrated with references to numerous American short story Writing the Survivor Robin E. Field, 2020-07-15 Writing the Survivor The Rape Novel in Late Twentieth composites Century American Fiction identifies a new genre of American fiction the rape novel that recenters narratives of sexual violence on the survivors of violence and abuse rather than the perpetrators The rape novel arose during the women s liberation movement as women writers collectively challenged the traditional erasure of female subjectivity and agency found in earlier representations of sexual violence in American fiction The rape novel not only foregrounds survivors and their stories in a textual centering that affirms their dignity and self worth but also develops new narratological strategies for portraying violent disturbing subject matter In bringing together many key women s texts of the last decades of the 20th century the rape novel demonstrates the centrality of sexual assault to women s fiction of this era The rape novels of the 21st century continue the political activism inherent in the genre educating readers offering community to survivors and encouraging social activism as the stories of male survivors are increasingly told A radical reconsideration of late twentieth century American novels Writing the Survivor underscores the importance of women s activism upon the novel s form and content and reveals the portrayal of rape as rape to be an interethnic imperative Taking Charge of My Life ,1991
