Modern Sculpture Douglas Dreishpoon, 2022-10-25 Artists of any ilk can be extremely opinionated when it comes to what they do how they do it and what it might mean Sculptors are no exception Modern Sculpture Artists in Their Own Words presents a selection of manifestos documents statements articles and interviews from more than ninety subjects including an ample selection of contemporary sculptors With this book editor Douglas Dreishpoon defers to sculptors whose varied points of view illuminate the medium's perpetual transformation from object to action concept to phenomenon over the course of two centuries Each chapter progresses in chronological sequence to highlight the dominant stylistic philosophical and thematic threads that unite each kindred group The result is a distinctive artist centric history and survey of sculpture that showcases the expansive dimensions and malleability of the medium Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood, David Hulks, Alex Potts, 2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture's radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenberg Andr Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works

Sculpture 1900-1945 Penelope Curtis, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900 1945 Using a clearly defined thematic structure it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art Individual chapters cover public sculpture the monument the object image making the built environment the figurative ideal and different materials These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars each preceded by widespread rising nationalism The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets Auguste Rodin whose ground breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900 serves as the book's point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference Painting and

Sculpture in Europe, 1880-1940 George Heard Hamilton, 1993-01-01 This new edition of a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject as the Sunday Times called it includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels Impressionism and Expressionism Symbolism Cubism Constructivism Surrealism etc and to the achievements of Degas and Cezanne Ensor and Munch Matisse and Kandinsky Picasso Braque and Epstein Mondrian Dali Modigliani Utrillo and Chagall Klee Henry Moore and many other artists in a revolutionary age

Giacometti James Lord, 1997-10-30 The work of one of the towering creative spirits of the century Alberto Giacometti's visionary sculptures and paintings from a testament to the artist's intriguing life story From modest beginnings in a Swiss village Giacometti went on to flourish in the picturesque milieu of prewar Paris and then to achieve international acclaim in the fifties and sixties Picasso Balthus Samuel Beckett Stravinsky and Sartre have parts in his story along with flamboyant art dealers whores shady drifters unscrupulous collectors poets and thieves Women were a complex yet important element of his life particularly his wife Annette and his last mistress and model Caroline as was the intimate relationship he shared with his brother Diego who was both Alberto's confidant and collaborator James Lord was personally acquainted with Giacometti and his entourage and combines firsthand experience with a unique knowledge gathered during many years of observation and research In this exceptional biography Lord unfolds the personal history of a man who managed to achieve a heroic destiny by remaining utterly true to himself and to his calling Giacometti A Biography was nominated for the National Book Critics Circle Award James Lord has subsequently published three volumes of memoirs In recognition of his contribution to French culture he has been made an officer of the Legion of Honour

A Sourcebook of Gauguin's Symbolist Followers Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, 2004-06-30 Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 played a seminal role in Post Impressionist France In his writings and work he favored emotional responses to nature over intellectual uses of lines color and composition In 1888 he and Emile Bernard developed a new style called Synthetism Three groups of Gauguin's symbolist followers Pont Aven Les Nabis and Rose Croix pursued and extended the Synthetist vision This sourcebook focuses on the most prominent adherents of the three schools directly affected by Gauguin's symbolism This is the first comprehensive single volume guide and bibliography of artists in these three important French avant garde movements This work covers the entire careers of 16 artists by providing biographical sketches chronologies citations to primary and secondary literature and exhibitions

Commission to the Paris Exposition, 1900, 1901 Materials and Processes of Contemporary Sculpture Mahmoud Farag, 2020-01-17 Creating a successful sculpture requires an imaginative concept and a sound design that utilize the potential and avoid the limitations of the material and the process used in making it Prior to a few decades ago most sculptors were restricted to carving stone and wood or casting plaster ceramics and bronze for their creations Contemporary sculptors however are no longer bound by the limitations of these traditional materials and processes and can now create works in sizes forms and textures that could not have been achieved previously Many modern sculptures are now made from materials ranging from steel and aluminum to plastics and composites using processes ranging from welding and adhesive bonding to molding and 3D printing To fully utilize the full potential of such new materials the sculptor needs to understand their points of strength their limitations and the most effective way of shaping them to achieve a given design Although this book is written by a materials engineer the subject matter is presented from the point of view of the sculptor with emphasis on the strengths and weaknesses of different materials their resistance to weather conditions natural color and possible surface textures possible methods of shaping and joining tools and equipment needed and safety measures to take Whenever possible case studies are used to illustrate the sequence of processes and the cost elements involved in shaping a given material to create an actual work of sculpture

Public Garden Management: a Global Perspective Bijan Dehgan, 2014-04-16 Public Gardens Management A Global Perspective provides essential information about public gardens and what is involved in designing managing and maintaining one Although suitable as a textbook its audience will include anyone with direct or peripheral responsibility for administration or supervision of a complex organization that requires scientific knowledge as well as public relations and business acumen It may also prove useful for homeowners for there is no fundamental difference between growing plants in a public garden or a home garden a fact reflected in the extensive reference citations The topic is multidisciplinary and as old as the beginning of human civilization when the concept of mental and physical restoration was realized by early man while he she was in a natural but well ordered garden environment Thus began the art of garden making Many volumes have been written on every applicable subject discussed in this and similar publications Indeed the voluminous literature on history design horticulture and numerous related subjects is nothing short of overwhelming Accordingly anyone involved in management of public gardens whether as a director or area supervisor and irrespective of the type and size of such facility would have to have familiarity with various aspects of garden organization and administration However despite the enormous number and diversity of such publications there are very few books that deal with the multiplicity of the topics in such a manner as to be practical in approach and cover most relevant and unified issues in a single book These volumes provide the essential background information on plants animals management maintenance fundraising and finances as well as history art design education and conservation They also cover a host of interrelated subjects and responsible organization of such activities as creating a childrens garden horticultural therapy conservatories zoological gardens and parks hence administration of multidimensional public gardens Nearly 500 full color plates representing illustrations from gardens in more than 30 countries are provided to assist and guide students and other interested individuals with history and the fundamental issues of public garden management The 15 chapters begin with the need for public gardens types of public gardens historical backgrounds as well as design diversity Numerous quotations are included from many garden lovers landscape architects philosophers and others The authors primary aim in writing this book was based on the confidence that a relevant reference between the encyclopedic nature of some and the specific subject matter of others could be used to provide fundamental information for management of public as well as private gardens The boundary between botanical and zoological gardens and parks is no longer as distinct as it once was In part it is because a garden is not a garden without plants and in part it has become apparent that for all practical intents and purposes all animals need plants for their survival Visitors of zoological gardens expect to see more than just animals zoos are landscaped grounds Moreover most communities find it financially difficult to simultaneously operate a botanical garden or an arboretum as well as a zoological garden and city parks A number of public gardens are currently referred to as botanical and zoological garden Population density and the publics desires and expectations as well as financial requirements are among the reasons for some major city parks such as Golden Gate in San Francisco Central Park in New York City and Lincoln Park in Chicago which integrate botanical or zoological divisions as well as museums and recreational facilities While this book attempts to provide basic principles involved in public garden management it does not claim to be a substitute for broader familiarity
