Here are three books that will appeal not only to music-minded children; they will come as a boon and a blessing to parents, aunts and uncles, music teachers, librarians and indeed all who are interested in the upbringing and educating of children. These books have the great value of being instructive, cultural and inspiring, as well as recreational.

Simply written lives of great musicians, attractively illustrated and introducing simple music at appropriate intervals, the volumes have an irresistible appeal to children of almost any age. They make the piano stool positively magnetic!
