In Pursuit of Ancient Pasts Stephen L. Dyson, 2008-10-01 divThe stories behind the acquisition of ancient antiquities are often as important as those that tell of their creation This fascinating book provides a comprehensive account of the history and development of classical archaeology explaining how and why artifacts have moved from foreign soil to collections around the world As archaeologist Stephen Dyson shows Greek and Roman archaeological study was closely intertwined with ideas about class and social structure the rise of nationalism and later political ideologies such as fascism and the physical and cultural development of most of the important art museums in Europe and the United States whose prestige depended on their creation of collections of classical art Accompanied by a discussion of the history of each of the major national traditions and their significant figures this lively book shows how classical archaeology has influenced attitudes about areas as wide ranging as tourism nationalism the role of the museum and historicism in nineteenth and twentieth century art DIV

Whose Muse? James Cuno, 2018-06-05 During the economic boom of the 1990s art museums expanded dramatically in size scope and ambition They came to be seen as new civic centers on the one hand as places of entertainment leisure and commerce on the other as socially therapeutic institutions But museums were also criticized for everything from elitism to looting or illegally exporting works from other countries to exhibiting works offensive to the public taste Whose Muse brings together five directors of leading American and British art museums who together offer a forward looking alternative to such prevailing views While their approaches differ certain themes recur As museums have become increasingly complex and costly to manage and as government support has waned the temptation is great to follow policies driven not by a mission but by the market However the directors concur that public trust can be upheld only if museums continue to see their core mission as building collections that reflect a nation s artistic legacy and providing informed and unfettered access to them The book based on a lecture series of the same title held in 2000 2001 by the Harvard Program for Art Museum Directors also includes an introduction by Cuno and a fascinating and surprisingly frank roundtable discussion among the participating directors A rare collection of sustained reflections by prominent museum directors on the current state of affairs in their profession this book is without equal It will be read widely not only by museum professionals trustees critics and scholars but also by the art loving public itself Korea Journal ,1961
