Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint

Regional Politics in Oceania Stephanie Lawson,2024-02-22 Stephanie Lawson s book is by far the most comprehensive study of regional politics in Oceania produced to date Drawing on a range of interdisciplinary sources she provides a systematic account of major issues facing the region and presents conceptual and theoretical issues in a sophisticated but accessible manner She traces the trajectories of regional politics from the earliest human settlements to European exploration and colonization the period of formal regionalization in the post war period decolonization the Cold War and key geopolitical developments in the post Cold War period She also focuses on identity politics manifest at various levels from the local through to the national subregional and regional as well as broader configurations around the West non West divide This book will be of interest to anyone engaged with the history and politics of Oceania or comparative regional studies especially given the relevance of themes to Asian African and Latin American contexts After the Imperial Turn Antoinette Burton,2003-05-29 Essays in this collection assess the nation as a subject of disciplinary inquiry considering both its enduring relevance and its inadequacy as an analytical category for studying history literature and culture
