Pacific Tourism Review Volume 5 Numbers 1 :

Tourism Review International ,2003 Tourism in the Mediterranean Sea Filippo Grasso,Bruno S. Sergi,2021-03-01 Tourism in the Mediterranean Sea An Italian Perspective is the product of a collaborative group of experts in the field of tourism Academics whose research focuses on regional tourism system governance alongside several experts from the tourism sector contributed to the volume with distinct issues related to the tourism industry Tourism in Marine Environments ,2004 7th International Conference on Tourism Research Prof Rishi Balkaran,Dr Chris Hattingh,2024-03-18 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 7th International Conference on Tourism Research ICTR 2024 hosted by the Centre for Tourism Research in Africa at the Cape Town Hotel School Cape Peninsula University of Technology South Africa on 18 19 March 2024 The Conference Chair is Prof Rishi Balkaran and the Programme Chair is Dr Chris Hattingh both from Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT South Africa ICTR is a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 7th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research Today more than ever there is a need for research and scientific guidance as the tourist sector struggles to cope with the consequences of the Covid 19 pandemic inflation socio political turbulences climate change and disaster risk Days of Infamy: How a Century of Bigotry Led to Japanese American Internment (Scholastic Focus) Lawrence Goldstone,2022-06-07 In another unrelenting look at the iniquities of the American justice system Lawrence Goldstone acclaimed author of Unpunished Murder Stolen Justice and Separate No More examines the history of racism against Japanese Americans exploring the territory of citizenship and touching on fears of non white immigration to the US with hauntingly contemporary echoes On December 7 1941 a date which will live in infamy the Japanese navy launched an attack on the American military bases at Pearl Harbor Hawaii The next day President Franklin Roosevelt declared war on Japan and the US Army officially entered the Second World War Three years later on December 18 1944 President Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066 which enabled the Secretary of War to enforce a mass deportation of more than 100 000 Americans to what government officials themselves called concentration camps None of these citizens had been accused of a real crime All of them were torn from their homes jobs schools and communities and deposited in tawdry makeshift housing behind barbed wire solely for the crime of being of Japanese descent President Roosevelt declared this community alien whether they were citizens or not native born or not accusing them of being potential spies and saboteurs for Japan who deserved to have their Constitutional rights stripped away In doing so the president set in motion another date which would live in infamy the day when the US joined the ranks of those Fascist nations that had forcibly deported innocents solely on the basis of the circumstance of their birth In 1944 the US Supreme Court ruled in Korematsu v United States that the forcible deportation and detention of Japanese Americans on the basis of race was a military necessity Today it is widely considered one of the worst Supreme Court decisions of all time But Korematsu was not an isolated event In fact the Court s racist ruling was the result of a deep seated anti Japanese anti Asian sentiment running all the way back to the California Gold Rush of the mid 1800s Starting from this pivotal moment Constitutional law scholar Lawrence Goldstone will take young readers through the key events of the 19th and 20th centuries leading up to the fundamental injustice of Japanese American internment Tracing the history of Japanese immigration to America and the growing fear whites had of losing power Goldstone will raise deeply resonant questions of what makes an American an American and what it means for the Supreme Court to stand as the people s branch of government Tourism Economics and Policy Larry Dwyer,Peter Forsyth,Wayne Dwyer,2010-10-27 Tourism Economics and Policy combines a comprehensive treatment of economic concepts and applications in tourism contexts Topics include tourism demand and forecasting tourism supply and pricing measuring the impacts and benefits of changes in tourism demand tourism investment and infrastructure tourism taxation aviation tourism and the environment including climate change and destination competitiveness The text provides an excellent basis for students to appreciate the relevance of economic analysis to the solution of real life tourism issues and as an input into tourism policy formulation Contemporary Perspectives on Shopping, Retail and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy,2025-04-15 In the contemporary world of guaranteed change shopping remains a constant in the tourism experience even though its forms measures functions and manifestations are continuously evolving This book offers traditional perspectives on shopping and tourism and updates current thinking in relation to experiences and internal and external forces that affect retail change and shopping behaviour It also examines how technology and changes in travel create new retail spaces virtual spaces and retailscapes in tourism contexts The volume provides a global perspective with empirical examples being utilised from many parts of the world in a series of conceptually driven chapters on current issues opportunities challenges and paradigms in the relationship between shopping and tourism

United States Government Information ,1994 Reflections on Myanmar Reshmi Banerjee,2023-02-17 Myanmar is known for its engaging history rich cultural heritage and diverse ethnic communities Its tumultuous political past has been discussed by academics and policy makers for decades however the land of the Shwedagon cannot only be defined by conflict and contestation Myanmar is complex and multi layered with innumerable issues shaping its identity and manifold interpretations creating its distinctiveness A deeper comprehension of its past glory with thoughtful deliberation on its socio economic challenges helps to understand the country better This book fills this gap by focusing on four broad themes reminiscence restoration re evaluation and resurrection It studies interconnected issues ranging from nostalgia and belonging to Myanmar s contribution to art and heritage through its museums cinema folk traditions from the problems of landlessness resource dispossession and climate change to the experience of marginalized groups The author weaves these themes into a common narrative of discovering Myanmar through a holistic lens The book aims to explore the country through its history culture communities and challenges A unique contribution the book highlights the myriad facets of Myanmar by contemplating on its inherent strengths and visible weaknesses It would be indispensable for scholars and researchers of Southeast Asian studies Asian studies area studies Myanmar studies political studies cultural studies and sociology Department of State Bulletin ,1987 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy
