Pacific Rim Development Integration And Globalisation In The Asiapacific Economy:

Pacific Rim Development Peter James Rimmer, Australian National University. Dept. of International Relations, 1997
This volume critically examines a number of the key propositions which have emerged from the growing literature on the relationships between economics and security Much of this literature derives from Europe or the US and its relevance to the dynamic Asia Pacific region which is the geographical focus of this study is contested BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Globalisation and the Asia-Pacific Peter Dicken, Philip F. Kelly, Lily Kong, Kris Olds, Henry Wai-chung Yeung, 2005-06-27 Most books that analyse the crucial subject of globalisation only look at it from a western perspective This is the first detailed study to look at globalisation specifically in the Asia Pacific region An impressive collection of leading interdisciplinary scholars explore various dimensions of globalisation and their relationship to development processes in the region Regional Change in Industrializing Asia Leo van Grunsven, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this book responds to the dynamics of Industrializing Asia and the behavioural changes of actors which in response to changing internal and external forces have given rise to and are constantly giving rise to alterations in patterns of growth From a geographical perspective these are expressed in regional change understood as a reconstruction of spatial organization The imperatives of dynamic comparative advantage changing global or regional competitiveness and regional competition faced by different actors entities or territorial units can be identified as important forces underlying and shaping regional change This volume provides further illumination contextualization and interpretation of the spatiality of the economic reality in Industrializing Asia as well as the role played by and the implications for different actors The objectives of this book are 1 to outline the processes of regional change linked to responses in the form of restructuring and integrative and regionalization tendencies as well as the realignment of the global regional local divide in production systems complexes and the operation of firms associated with reorganization of production in the process of maintaining and reconfiguring comparative advantage 2 to highlight the wide scope of the process by considering differential units of analysis linked to the agents and manifestations of regional change and the role of scale in terms of the spatial units involved 3 to highlight the implications as to the current and future position or role of differential actors agents particularly nation state in shaping the new economic reality in the region and as a corollary its positioning in the global economic order
Migration, Globalisation and Human Security David T. Graham, Nana K. Poku, 2005-08-04 Migration Globalisation and Human Security looks at a range of security and human security issues related to the displacement of civilian populations and shows how the tenuous existence of migrants can lead to a myriad of human security threats Providing major theoretical analyses of recent migration trends and in depth case studies this book shows that a redefinition of the notion of human security is now needed The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume

The Globalisation of the Oceans Frank Broeze, 2017-10-18 This book maintains that container shipping is vital to the actualisation of globalisation and that without it globalisation would remain a concept rather than reality It argues that container shipping has been academically overlooked as a global business sector in favour of more prominent sectors such as oil or arms trade and aims to provide a complete history of containerisation from the 1950s to the turn of the millennium This history explores the growth of the container industry due to prominent innovation in vessel design early adoption of the internet large international mergers and significant physical alterations to the global port system With particular emphasis on the east west trade the chapters cover the growth and development of the container industry to the social changes experienced by seafaring labour forces the cultural impact of the container bringing a domineering land presence to maritime activity through to the environmental concerns surrounding the industry The study is not a quantitative economic analysis of the industry rather an updated history that strives to demonstrate the importance of transport infrastructures to any consideration of global business sectors by providing evidence of the container industry's stimulation of the global economy

Tourism in South and Southeast Asia C. Michael Hall, Stephen Page, 2012-10-12 Tourism in South and South East Asia is a comprehensive and solid introduction to tourism in South and South East Asia with a specific appeal both to institutions in the region and other institutions who wish to expose students to one of the most dynamic tourism regions in the world Despite downturns in outbound tourism due to the current economic crisis inbound tourism from outside the region has continued to increase with governments placing more emphasis on the economic significance of tourism than ever Tourism in South and South East Asia is the first tourism book to deal comprehensively with the implications of the Asian economic crisis for tourism With South and South East Asia set to be the fastest growing area of tourism activity in the world well into the next century Tourism in South and South East Asia is an essential text for students both within and outside of this region Dealing with concepts themes and issues which are pertinent to tourism development planning marketing and management these two internationally known authors have produced an authoritative text that covers all aspects of this topic through the use of illustrative and relevant case studies

Commercial Law in the South Pacific Mohammed L. Ahmadu, Bridget Fa'amatuainu, 2024-09-25 This book provides a detailed examination of the core areas of commercial law in common law jurisdictions across a range of South Pacific countries Cook Islands Fiji Islands Kiribati Marshall Islands Niue Nauru Samoa Solomon Islands Tonga Tuvalu and Vanuatu Commerce is an area of central importance to the South Pacific region Although the countries in question are small it is widely acknowledged that their need to promote and develop commercial enterprise is crucial for their future sustainability With a focus on case law and legislative provisions in individual jurisdictions it sets out the framework of legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region highlighting the common patterns and principal differences between countries of the region It includes a discussion of PACER Plus post Cotonou discussions and the EU OACPS Partnership Agreement as well as key amendments and challenges to commercial law in the region It explores the legal structures of commerce control and management of commercial entities banking and transactions and termination Importantly the book has two new chapters on digital currency and e commerce in the South Pacific reflecting the increasing use of technology in financial and commercial transactions Offering a detailed analysis of the legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region this book will be a useful resource for students academics and practitioners working on commercial law in the South Pacific region Globalisation and Deforestation in the Asia-Pacific Peter Dauvergne,1997 Migration and Development Ronald Skeldon,2014-09-19 The first text that specifically links both international and internal migration with development at a global level The world is divided into a series of functionally integrated development zones which are identified not simply on the basis of their level of development but also through their spatial patterns and historical experience of migration Migration and Development stresses the importance of migration in discussing regional rather than simply country differences These variations in mobility are placed within the context of a global hierarchy although regional national and local cultural and social conditions are certainly not ignored in this wide ranging work
