Pacific Women Taiafoni Tongamoa,1988 Pacific Women Taiafoni Tongamoa,1988 Gender Analysis in Papua New Guinea Elizabeth C. Brouwer,Bruce M. Harris,Sonomi Tanaka,1998-01-01 In October 1996 The East Asia and Pacific Region developed a Regional Gender Action Plan that stressed the importance of country specific strategies regarding gender issues This report on gender in Papua New Guinea intends to lay the foundation for such a strategy The report provides an outline of the key historical economic demographic political geographic socio cultural legal and institutional issues that are relevant to understanding the status of women in Papua New Guinea today Daughters of the Pacific Zohl Dé Ishtar,1994 This book gives a voice to the Pacific women and shows what strength there is in these underknown cultures our nearest neighbours The nuclear industry tourism dumping of waste pollution of the oceans all carry a huge price for these islands on the rim of the world and on the rim of our imaginations Family Violence and Social Change in the Pacific Islands Lois Bastide,Denis Regnier,2022-09-23 The Pacific Islands have some of the highest rates of family violence in the world Addressing the contemporary mutations of Pacific Island families and the shifting understandings of violence in the context of rapid social change this book investigates the conflict dynamics generated by these transformations The contributors draw from detailed case studies in a range of Pacific territories to examine family violence in relation to the social economic and political situation of native populations as well as individual collective and institutional responses to the development of violence within and upon the family They focus on vernacular understandings conflicting social norms the emergence of different types of violent patterns the impact of violence on individuals and communities and local attempts at mitigating or combating it Combining ethnographic expertise with engaged scholarship this volume offers a vivid account of ongoing social change in Pacific Island societies and a crucial contribution to the understanding of family violence as a social process cultural construct and political issue This book will appeal to scholars with interests in the sociology of violence and the family Pacific studies development studies and the social and cultural anthropology of Oceania Women Leading Education Across the Continents Rachel McNae,Elizabeth C. Reilly,2018-09-12 Women Leading Education Across the Continents Harnessing the Joy in Leadership is the fifth collection of research from scholars around the globe who seek to understand the successes challenges and progress of girls and women leading in education Using a variety of approaches to their inquiries the scholars and practitioners in this book discover and document the work of women leaders throughout the world seeking to understand in more nuanced ways how to chart a path for a more just society for all This volume explores the status of women in educational leadership internationally the factors that affect their leadership their personal experiences and stories and their work within the broader context of human rights The journey of discovery in these pages invites titiro whakamua looking toward a world for the good of all people Leadership in the Pacific Islands Donald R. Shuster,Peter Larmour,Karin von Storkirch,1998 Post-Colonial and African American Women's Writing Gina

Wisker, 2017-03-04 This accessible and unusually wide ranging book is essential reading for anyone interested in postcolonial and African American women's writing. It provides a valuable gender and culture inflected critical introduction to well established women writers Toni Morrison Alice Walker Margaret Atwood Suniti Namjoshi Bessie Head and others from the U S A India Africa Britain Australia New Zealand and introduces emergent writers from South East Asia Cyprus and Oceania. Engaging with and clarifying contested critical areas of feminism and the postcolonial exploring historical background and cultural context economic political and psychoanalytic influences on gendered experience it provides a cohesive discussion of key issues such as cultural and gendered identity motherhood mother tongue language relationships women's economic constraints and sexual politics Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website. Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women's issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium. In over 900 signed A-Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women's studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects Law for Pacific Women Patricia Imrana Jalal, 1998 Jalal has been able to collect the inputs of many individuals working within the legal systems of nine jurisdictions all member states of the University of the South Pacific in the region. This book represents an important collection of authorities and information in the region. The information is presented as simply as possible with an attempt to explain legal concepts and ideas in non technical language. Although this is not an academic text and is not aimed at an academic audience many will find it a useful point of reference for case examples and some legislative provisions. Its main objective however is to politicize the position of women in the Pacific. Ms Jalal's work is driven by her anger at the injustice that is caused to women in the Pacific because they are women. Preface ix and in her introductory chapter she argues that Pacific Island feminism will pave the way for equality for women in the region.
