Pack My Bag:

Great War Modernism Nanette Norris, 2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time

The Actor's Workbook Alex Clifton, 2016-05-05 The Actor's Workbook is an essential workbook for actors actors in training and teachers of acting and drama The workbook and video provide a clear step by step guide to learning techniques in acting The book presents a system of exercises which will develop core acting skills offers techniques for developing an authored role and models for devising new work These techniques are based on the practices of Konstantin Stanislavski and his recent theatrical descendants including Uta Hagen Sanford Meisner Michael Chekhov and others The exercises in the book are outlined in a student centred approach offering not only in class exercises but also pre class exercises educational frameworks teaching tips suggested texts through which to apply the work follow up exercises and suggestions for further reading in each chapter Enabling and guiding the actor's sustainable communicable believable transformation into an imagined reality this workbook is filled with powerful and precise acting tools each underpinned by a rigorous and well explained philosophy of practice The Actor's Workbook includes video of the author teaching the exercises with professional actors demonstrating the techniques to be learned

The Letter and the Hit List Anushka Arvind, 2014-09-08 Sonia is twenty years old and alone in the world Her parents died in a mysterious bombing accident and shes been living with her aunt and uncle ever since When things suddenly go awry the truth comes out Sonias parents death was no accident They were set up and they left a very important list for their little girl Sonias aunt and uncle flee with their family because Sonia is now set on a dangerous mission Her parents left her a list of people she has to kill in order to avenge them and stay alive She is prepared for this undertaking but she is shocked to discover her high school crush is part of the plan as well She must train him to become a killer too Slowly Sonia forms a talented team She travels all over India in search of villains on her parents hit list Relationships form between team members as do suspicions After all can
