Michael Bond never intended to be a children's writer. Though an avid reader, he was by no means a model student and quit school at 14. He repaired rooftop radio transmitters during the bombing of Britain in World War II and later joined the army. He wrote about the war and more, selling stories here and there. One day while searching for inspiration at his typewriter, hoping for a big story that would allow him to write full time, a stuffed bear on top of the shelf, a Christmas present for his wife, suddenly caught his eye. Bond poured his personal feelings about the events of his era, the refugee children his family had hosted in the countryside, a war-torn country in recovery, the bustling immigrant neighborhood where he lived, into the story of a little bear from Peru who tries very, very hard to do things right. The result was A Bear Called Paddington. An incredible true tale. More than Marmalade. Michael Bond and the Story of Paddington Bear is the first biography about the writer behind the beloved series. Author Rosanne Tolin reveals how world history, Bond's life, and 1950s immigrant culture were embedded into Paddington's creation, bringing middle-grade readers a delightful, informative, and engaging book with a timely message of acceptance.

Production Design & the Cinematic Home Jane Barnwell, 2022-05-10. This book uses in-depth case studies to explore the significance of the design of the home on screen. The chapters draw widely upon the production designer's professional perspective and particular creative point of view. The case studies employ a methodology Barnwell has pioneered for the analysis of production design called Visual Concept Analysis, which can be used as a key to decode the design of any given film. Through the nurturing warmth of the Browns' home in Paddington, the ambiguous boundaries of secret service agent homes in Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy, and the singleton space occupied by Bridget Jones, Barnwell demonstrates that the domestic interior consistently plays a key role. Whether used as a transition space, an ideal, a catalyst for change, or a place to return to, these case studies examine the pivotal nature of the home in storytelling and the production designer's significance in its creation. The book benefits from interviews with production designers and artwork that provides insight on the creative process.

Paddington 2 (Solo Piano) Wise Publications, 2018-03-08. This unique folio presents selections from the soundtrack of the critically acclaimed sequel Paddington 2. Expertly arranged by composer Dario Marianelli for intermediate-level piano, it includes unforgettable full-colour imagery from the film, a specially prepared foreword, and an exclusive piano duet arrangement to be enjoyed by pianists of all levels.

Films for All Seasons Abby Olcese, Josh Larsen, 2024-10-15. Film critic Abby Olcese invites us to reflect on the great themes of the church calendar for each liturgical season through the lens of film. From superhero movies to classics and arthouse films, this book is more than just a book about movies; it's a model for how we engage with art as Christians.
