Paddling Her Own Canoe Veronica Strong-Boag, Carole Gerson, 2017-06-22 Frequently dismissed as a nature poet and an Indian Princess E Pauline Johnson 1861 1913 was not only an accomplished thinker and writer but a contentious and passionate personality who talked back to Euro Canadian culture Paddling Her Own Canoe is the only major scholarly study that examines Johnson's diverse roles as a First Nations champion New Woman serious writer and performer and Canadian nationalist A Native advocate of part Mohawk ancestry Johnson was also an independent self supporting unmarried woman during the period of first wave feminism Her versatile writings range from extraordinarily erotic poetry to polemical statements about the rights of First Nations Based on thorough research into archival and published sources this volume probes the meaning of Johnson's energetic career and addresses the complexities of her social racial and cultural position While situating Johnson in the context of turn of the century Canada the authors also use current feminist and post colonial perspectives to reframe her contribution Included is the first full chronology ever compiled of Johnson's writing Pauline Johnson was an extraordinary woman who crossed the racial and gendered lines of her time and thereby confounded Canadian society This study reclaims both her writings and her larger significance Tekahionwake: E. Pauline

Johnson's Writings on Native North America E. Pauline Johnson, 2015-12-30 E Pauline Johnson also known as Tekahionwake is remarkable as one of a very few early North American Indigenous poets and fiction writers Most Indigenous writers of her time were men educated for the ministry who published religious anthropological autobiographical political and historical works rather than poetry and fiction More extraordinary still Johnson became both a canonical poet and a literary celebrity performing on stage for fifteen years across Canada in the United States and in London Johnson is now seen as a central figure in the intellectual history of Canada and the US and an important historical example of Indigenous feminism This edition collects a diverse range of Johnson's writings on what was then called the Indian question and on the question of her own complex Indigenous identity Six thematic sections gather Johnson's poetry fiction and nonfiction and a rich selection of historical appendices provides context for her public life and her work as a feminist and activist for Indigenous people E. Pauline Johnson, Tekahionwake E. Pauline Johnson, 2002-01-01 The first complete collection of all of E Pauline Johnson's known poems many painstakingly culled from newspapers magazines and archives along with a selection of her prose including fiction journalism and discussions of gender and race Robert Burns and Transatlantic

Culture Sharon Alker, Leith Davis, 2016-04-08 While recent scholarship has usefully positioned Burns within the context of British Romanticism as a spokesperson of Scottish national identity Robert Burns and Transatlantic Culture considers Burns's impact in the United States Canada and South America where he has served variously as a site of cultural memory and of creative negotiation Ambitious in its scope the volume is divided into five sections that explore transatlantic concerns in Burns's own work Burns's early publication in North America Burns's reception in the Americas Burns's creation as a site of cultural memory and extra literary remediations of Burns including contemporary digital representations By tracing the transatlantic modulations of the poet and songwriter and his works Robert Burns and Transatlantic Culture sheds new light on the circuits connecting Scotland and Britain with the evolving cultures of the Americas from the late eighteenth century to the present
