Pageant of Summer (Large Print) Richard Jefferies, 2014-09-06 Green rushes long and thick standing up above the edge of the ditch told the hour of the year as distinctly as the shadow on the dial the hour of the day Green and thick and sappy to the touch they felt like summer soft and elastic as if full of life mere rushes though they were On the fingers they left a green scent rushes have a separate scent of green so too have ferns very different from that of grass or leaves Rising from brown sheaths the tall stems enlarged a little in the middle like classical columns and heavy with their sap and freshness leaned against the hawthorn sprays From the earth they had drawn its moisture and made the ditch dry some of the sweetness of the air had entered into their fibres and the rushes the common rushes were full of beautiful summer
