Painters In A New Land:

Lewis & Clark, Tailor Made, Trail Worn Robert John Moore, Michael Haynes, 2003 When the Lewis and Clark Expedition crossed a continent in 1803 to 1806 they started out in U S Army uniforms which gradually had to be replaced with simple leather garments For parts of those uniforms only a single drawing pattern or example survives Historian Moore and artist Haynes have researched archives and museums to locate and verify what the men wore and Haynes has painted and sketched the clothing in scenes of the trip Also included are Indian styles the men adopted and the wardrobes of the Creole interpreters and the French boatmen Weapons and accessories round out this complete record of what the expedition wore or carried and why A great reference for artists living history performers museums and military historians Picturing the Land Marilyn J. McKay, 2011-04-12 Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Cyclopedia of Painters and Paintings John Denison Champlin, 1887 Common Land in English Painting, 1700-1850 Ian Waites, 2012 An examination of the treatment of common land in the work of English painters at a time when much of it was to disappear forever A most elegantly written book that calmly knocked many entrenched but erroneous notions about British landscape painting firmly on the head Longlisted and commended by the judges of the 2013 William M B Berger prize for British art history During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries much of England's common land was eradicated by the processes of parliamentary enclosure However despite the fact that the landscape was frequently viewed as unproductive outmoded and unsightly many British landscape painters of the time including Constable Gainsborough and Turner resolutely continued to depict it This book is the first full study of how they did so using evidence drawn not only from art historical picture analysis but from contemporary poems and novels and the contemporary pamphlets essays and reports that advanced the rhetoric of both agricultural improvement and new theories on landscape aesthetics It highlights a deep rooted social and cultural attachment to the common field landscape and demonstrates that common land played a significant but until now underestimated role in both the history of English art and of the formation of an English national identity reflecting what are still highly sensitive issues of progress nostalgia and loss within the English countryside Recasting common land as a recurrent facet of English culture in the modern period the numerous paintings drawings and prints featured in this book give the reader a comprehensive and evocative sense of what this now almost wholly lost landscape looked like in its heyday Ian Waites is Senior Lecturer in History of Art and Design at the University of Lincoln The World of the Early Sienese Painter , This second volume of a trilogy provides the first comprehensive account of the economic social religious and intellectual world 13th and 14th century Sienese painters

Painting in Canada J. Russell Harper,1977-01-01 Since its first appearance in 1967 Russell Harper s classic study of Canadian painting has been recognized as the outstanding authority on the subject This edition provides a comprehensive survey generously illustrated of three centuries of Canadian painting from its beginnings in the seventeenth century Through a lively combination of entertaining anecdotes descriptions of the cultural background biographical accounts and critical judgement the reader comes to know intimately the artists their paintings and their environments Included are 173 reproductions 45 added since the first addition They all ow the reader to see representative works from all periods and provide a visual record of the cultural and social history of Canada Pilgrimage to the National Parks Lynn

Ross-Bryant,2013 National Parks America s Best Idea were from the first seen as sacred sites embodying the God given specialness of American people and American land and from the first they were also marked as tourist attractions The inherent tensions between these two realities ensured the parks would be stages where the country s conflicting values would be performed and contested As pilgrimage sites embody the values and beliefs of those who are drawn to them so Americans could travel to these sacred places to honor experience and be restored by the powers that had created the American land and the American enterprise This book explores the importance of the discourse of nature in American culture arguing that the attributes and symbolic power that had first been associated with the new world and then the frontier were embodied in the National Parks Author Ross Bryant focuses on National Parks as pilgrimage sites around which a discourse of nature developed and argues the centrality of religion in understanding the dynamics of both the language and the ritual manifestations related to National Parks Beyond the specific contribution to a richer analysis of the National Parks and their role in understanding nature and religion in the U S this volume contributes to the emerging field of religion and the environment larger issues in the study of religion e g cultural events and the spatial element in meaning making and the study of non institutional religion Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart,Xin Yang,Nie

Chongzheng,James Cahill,Hung Wu,Lang Shaojun,1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years The American Catalogue ,1881 American national trade bibliography The Crayon William James Stillman,John Durand,1859
