Painting City & Village Streets Around the World Ralph Hulett, 1970 Makin' Art, A Street Artist's Story Rick Gallup, 2014-04-22 Art fairs change shape and move around but I think of them as one place because their essential essence stays the same The location might be a city I've never been in but I'm at home as soon as I get there Exhibit canopies go up familiar faces go by and for two or three days a little village of artists comes together and then disappears This village is where I have lived most weekends from May to October for over thirty years The other place I live is a small historic village in Ohio where my wife and I raised a family I also have a little art gallery and picture framing business in our hundred year old house My story is partly about the double life street artists lead being part of two very different communities Street Art Lonely Planet, Ed Bartlett, 2017-04-01 An insider's guide to discovering the world's best urban art From amazing wall murals to Banksy's stencils and Invader's mosaics we showcase 140 creative hotspots across 42 cities and tell you how to find them as well as introduce pioneering artists and interview those who shaped the movement Street art is now present in almost every city town and village in the world from Aachen to Zwolle Its true audience is measured in the billions And given that the first record of homo sapiens painting on walls is thought to date back around 40 000 years it's surprising that street art has taken so long to flourish Today the proliferation of legal walls and organised festivals around the world makes it possible to encounter thought provoking transformative art in the most unexpected of places This visual guide to the world of street art takes in the scene in over 40 cities and includes interviews with some of the most prolific and well known street artists including Blek le Rat FAILE and Faith47 And with hundreds of locations plotted and a special focus on 15 of the world's most incredible street art festivals this guide will help you discover artworks hidden in plain sight around the world About Lonely Planet Since 1973 Lonely Planet has become the world's leading travel media company with guidebooks to every destination an award winning website mobile and digital travel products and a dedicated traveller community Lonely Planet covers must see spots but also enables curious travellers to get off beaten paths to understand more of the culture of the places in which they find themselves The world awaits Lonely Planet guides have won the TripAdvisor Traveler's Choice Award in 2012 2013 2014 2015 and 2016 Lonely Planet It's on everyone's bookshelves it's in every traveller's hands It's on mobile phones It's on the Internet It's everywhere and it's telling entire generations of people how to travel the world Fairfax Media Lonely Planet guides are quite simply like no other New York Times Important Notice The digital edition of this book may not contain all of the images found in the physical edition Speculative Light Amy J. Stanley Strychacki, 2012-02-23 The experiences of Club 57 s director Stanley Strychacki as recorded here briefly describe many of the artworks and performances that were shown and created therein But this is not the overriding purpose of the book Works by the more renowned artists such as Keith Haring Kenny Scharf and Jean Michel Basquiat are more fully explicated in art history books and museum and gallery catalogues But here these and less celebrated works are interwoven with the circumstances of the club how it came to be how the participants interacted and how the things that happened were able to happen The last of these holds the biggest key How was it that what appeared to be a punk rock club filled with visually outrageous verbally incitive and overtly sexually experimental young people was allowed to operate for five years in the basement of a church And how did the members come up with night after night of performances art shows film festivals group activities and extensively casted productions a new program nearly every night and all this without any of the government sponsored funding that is so bitterly and publicly fought over today Leonard Abrams The book its not perfect and short I apologize if I didn t write about you If you were a Club 57 member or a fan add your name experience and feeling on this page You can do it for yor own satisfaction for your friends and family or for the large internet audience I invite you to be part of New York history I want to read your comments and feel your soul heart and mind
