Painting The Century:

Flemish Painting: The century of Van Eyck Jacques Lassaigue, 1957 The Mass Market for History Paintings in Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam Angela Jager, 2025-10-01 Millions of paintings were produced in the Dutch Republic The works that we know and see in museums today constitute only the tip of the iceberg the top quality part But what else was painted This book explores the low quality end of the seventeenth century art market and outlines the significance of that production in the genre of history paintings which in traditional art historical studies is usually linked to high prices famous painters and elite buyers Angela Jager analyses the producers suppliers and consumers active in this segment to gain insight into this enormous market for cheap history paintings What did the supply consist of in terms of quantity quality price and subject Who produced all these works and which production methods did these painters employ Who distributed these paintings to whom and which strategies were used to market them Who bought these paintings and why The British Country House in the Eighteenth Century Christopher Christie, 2000 This work explores the British country house between 1700 1830 and looks at the lives of the noblemen and the servants who inhabited them Reference is made to the whole of the British Isles and there is a discussion of their political significance The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently Art and Artists of Twentieth-century China Michael Sullivan, 1996 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope Seventeenth-century Art & Architecture Ann Sutherland Harris, 2005 Encompassing the socio political cultural background of the period this title takes a look at the careers of the Old Masters and many lesser known artists The book covers artistic developments across six countries and examines in detail many of the artworks on display Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2017-03-02 The church of Hagia Sophia in Trebizond built by the emperor Manuel I Grand Komnenos 1238 63 in the aftermath of the fall of Constantinople to the Fourth Crusade is the finest surviving Byzantine imperial monument of its period Art and Identity in Thirteenth Century Byzantium is the first investigation of the church in more than thirty years and is extensively illustrated in colour and black and white with many images that have never previously been published

Antony Eastmond examines the architectural sculptural and painted decorations of the church placing them in the context of contemporary developments elsewhere in the Byzantine world in Seljuq Anatolia and among the Caucasian neighbours of Trebizond Knowledge of this area has been transformed in the last twenty years following the collapse of the Soviet Union The new evidence that has emerged enables a radically different interpretation of the church to be reached and raises questions of cultural interchange on the borders of the Christian and Muslim worlds of eastern Anatolia the Caucasus and Persia This study uses the church and its decoration to examine questions of Byzantine identity and imperial ideology in the thirteenth century This is central to any understanding of the period as the fall of Constantinople in 1204 divided the Byzantine empire and forced the successor states in Nicaea Epiros and Trebizond to redefine their concepts of empire in exile Art is here exploited as significant historical evidence for the nature of imperial power in a contested empire It is suggested that imperial identity was determined as much by craftsmen and expectations of imperial power as by the emperor's decree and that this was a credible alternative Byzantine identity to that developed in the empire of Nicaea Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif, Stephen Vernoit, 2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour The Dutch Republic in the Seventeenth Century Maarten Prak, 2005-09-22 The Dutch are the envy of some the fear of others and the wonder of all their neighbours So wrote the English ambassador to the Dutch Republic Sir William Temple in 1673 Maarten Prak offers a lively and innovative history of the Dutch Golden Age charting its political social economic and cultural history through chapters that range from the introduction of the tulip to the experiences of immigrants and Jews in Dutch society the paintings of Vermeer and Rembrandt and the ideas of Spinoza He places the Dutch miracle in a European context examining the Golden Age both as the product of its own past and as the harbinger of a more modern industrialised and enlightened society A fascinating and accessible study this 2005 book will prove invaluable reading to anyone interested in Dutch history Naturalism's Imaginary Museum, French Art, and the Eclectic Nineteenth Century Sara Pappas,
