Ethno-political Conflict in Pakistan Rizwan Zeb,2019-12-12 This book critically examines the causes of the increase in insurgent violence in Balochistan and explores the relations between the national government of Pakistan and the province of Balochistan Based on historical analysis the book argues that the national government of Pakistan and the leaders of Balochistan both use a standard narrative when dealing with each other According to the Baloch narrative Islamabad exploits Balochistan s natural resources without giving Balochistan its due share and has never accepted and granted Balochistan equal rights The centre s narrative emphasizes the tribal character of the Baloch society and suggests that the Baloch elite hinder Balochistan s integration with the federation This book demonstrates that both narratives are inherently flawed and presents a precipitous picture of the problem of insurgent violence It also shows that the Baloch leadership is divided along tribal lines and lacks a unified voice and proposes that the Baloch elite use the narrative of enduring injustice only as a source of politicization of Baloch ethnicity when an actual or perceived injustice is taking place An important addition to the literature on ethno political conflicts this unique analysis of the importance of narrative in the imagination of political movements will be of interest to scholars in the fields of South Asian studies ethnic conflicts separatist and political movements and Asian politics Pakistan Peter R. State and Nation-Building in Pakistan Roger D. Long,Gurharpal Singh,Yunas Samad,Ian Talbot,2015-10-08 Religion violence and ethnicity are all intertwined in the history of Pakistan. The entrenchment of landed interests operationalized through violence, ethnic identity and power through successive regimes has created a system of authoritarian clientalism. This book offers comparative historicist and multidisciplinary views on the role of identity politics in the development of Pakistan. Bringing together perspectives on the dynamics of state building, the book provides insights into contemporary processes of national contestation which are crucially affected by their treatment in the world media and by the reactions they elicit within an increasingly globalised polity. It investigates the resilience of landed elites to political and social change and in the years after partition looks at the impact on land holdings of population transfer. It goes on to discuss religious identities and their role in both the construction of national identity and in the development of sectarianism. The book highlights how ethnicity and identity politics are an enduring marker in Pakistani politics and why they are increasingly powerful and influential. An insightful collection on a range of perspectives on the dynamics of identity politics and the nation state, this book on Pakistan will be a useful contribution to South Asian Politics, South Asian History and Islamic Studies.

South Asia's Weak States T. V. Paul, 2010-08-09 South Asia which consists of eight states of different sizes and capabilities is characterized by high levels of insecurity at the inter state, intra state and human level. Insecurity that is manifest in both traditional and non traditional security problems, especially transnational terrorism fuelled by militant religious ideologies. To explain what has caused and contributed to the perpetual insecurity and human suffering in the region, this book engages scholars of international relations, comparative politics, historical sociology and economic development among others to reveal and analyze the key underlying and proximate drivers. It argues that the problems are driven largely by two critical variables: the presence of weak states and weak cooperative interstate norms. Based on this analysis and the conclusions drawn, the book recommends specific policies for making the region secure and for developing the long lasting inter and intra state cooperative mechanisms necessary for the perpetuation of that security.

Islam in South Asia Jamal Malik, 2008-10-31 Islamic South Asia has become a focal point in academia. Where did Muslims come from? How did they fare in interacting with Hindu cultures? How did they negotiate identity as ruling and ruled minorities and majorities? Part I covers early Muslim expansion and the formative phase in context of initial cultural encounter, app 700-1300. Part II views the establishment of Muslim empire, cultures oscillating between Islamic and Islamicate, centralised and regionalised power, app 1300-1700.
