Pakistan Islam Politics And National Solidarity:

Pakistan Anwar Hussain Syed,1982 Pakistan Anwar Hussain Syed,1984 Islam and Pakistan's Political Culture Farhan Mujahid Chak,2014-09-04 This book explores the ideological rivalry which is fuelling political instability in Muslim polities discussing this in relation to Pakistan It argues that the principal dilemma for Muslim polities is how to reconcile modernity and tradition It discusses existing scholarship on the subject outlines how Muslim political thought and political culture have developed over time and then relates all this to Pakistan s political evolution present political culture and growing instability The book concludes that traditionalist and secularist approaches to reconciling modernity and tradition have not succeeded and have in fact led to instability and that a revivalist approach is more likely to be successful The Application of Islamic Criminal Law in Pakistan Tahir Wasti,2009 No legal system in the world has aroused as much public interest as Sharia However the discourse around Sharia law is largely focussed on its development and the theories principles and rules that inform it Less attention has been given to studying the consequences of its operation particularly in the area of Islamic criminal law Even fewer studies explore the actual practice of Islamic criminal law in contemporary societies This book aims to fill these gaps in our understanding of Sharia law in practice It deals specifically with the consequences of enforcing Islamic criminal law in Pakistan providing an in depth and critical analysis of the application of the Islamic law of Qisas and Diyat retribution and blood money in the Muslim world today The empirical evidence adduced more broadly demonstrates the complications of applying traditional Sharia in a modern state Islam in World Politics Nelly Lahoud,A.H. Johns,2012-10-12 This book examines the influence of Islamist movements in national and international power politics in the equilibrium of the world of finance and the articulation of gender issues in Islamic and non Islamic countries alike Civil-military Relations In Pakistan Saeed Shafqat,2019-08-16 Taking an explicitly comparative theoretical approach Saeed Shafqat presents a comprehensive exploration of civil military relations in Pakistan He begins by describing the history of military hegemony in this volatile South Asian country and then examines the breakdown of military control assessing the rise of the Pakistan People s Party and th Ethno-political Conflict in Pakistan Rizwan Zeb,2019-12-12 This book critically examines the causes of the increase in insurgent violence in Balochistan and explores the relations between the national government of Pakistan and the province of Balochistan Based on historical analysis the book argues that the national government of Pakistan and the leaders of Balochistan both use a standard narrative when dealing with each other According to the Baloch narrative Islamabad exploits Balochistan s natural resources without giving Balochistan its due share and has never accepted and granted Balochistan equal rights The centre s narrative emphasizes the tribal character of the Baloch society and suggests that the Baloch elite hinder Balochistan s integration with the federation This book demonstrates that both narratives are inherently flawed and presents a precipitous picture of the problem of insurgent violence It also shows that the Baloch leadership is divided along tribal lines and lacks a unified voice and proposes that the

Baloch elite use the narrative of enduring injustice only as a source of politicization of Baloch ethnicity when an actual or perceived injustice is taking place An important addition to the literature on ethno political conflicts this unique analysis of the importance of narrative in the imagination of political movements will be of interest to scholars in the fields of South Asian studies ethnic conflicts separatist and political movements and Asian politics Global Rebellion Mark Juergensmeyer,2008-05-16 Why has the turn of the twenty first century been rocked by a new religious rebellion From al Qaeda to Christian militias to insurgents in Iraq a strident new religious activism has seized the imaginations of political rebels around the world Building on his groundbreaking book The New Cold War Religious Nationalism Confronts the Secular State Mark Juergensmeyer here provides an up to date road map through this complex new religious terrain Basing his discussion on interviews with militant activists and case studies of rebellious movements Juergensmeyer puts a human face on conflicts that have become increasingly abstract He revises our notions of religious revolution and offers positive proposals for responding to religious activism in ways that will diminish the violence and lead to an accommodation between radical religion and the secular world A Modern History of the Islamic World Reinhard Schulze,2002-03 Considering the Islamic world from Morocco to Indonesia Somalia and Bosnia Schulze Islamic studies U of Berne charts their histories during the 20th century Rather than taking each one in turn he narrates chronologically the political changes throughout the world where Islam is the dominant cultural force He begins with the impact of colonialism and ends with struggle between Islamic culture and civil society in the 1990s He includes several maps Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
