Palaces For The People A Social History Of The American Museum:

Palaces for the People Nathaniel Burt, 1977-01-01 Recounts the origins and growth of America's art museums the acquisition of major collections and pictures and the activities and personalities of collectors and patrons The Museum in America Edward P. Alexander, 2000-01-01 The Museum in America captures the life stories of thirteen visionary museum leaders who helped transform the 19th century's collection of curios into today's institution of public service and education In the lively style of Museum Masters Alexander recounts the stories of pioneers in American history science art and general museums For anyone interested in the history of the museum this volume is the place to start Theodore Roosevelt Kathleen Dalton, 2007-12-18 He inherited a sense of entitlement and obligation from his family yet eventually came to see his own class as suspect He was famously militaristic yet brokered peace between Russia and Japan He started out an archconservative yet came to champion progressive causes These contradictions are not evidence of vacillating weakness instead they were the product of a restless mind bent on a continuous quest for self improvement In Theodore Roosevelt historian Kathleen Dalton reveals a man with a personal and intellectual depth rarely seen in our public figures She shows how Roosevelt's struggle to overcome his frailties as a child helped to build his character and offers new insights into his family life uncovering the important role that Roosevelt's second wife Edith Carow played in the development of his political career She also shows how TR flirted with progressive reform and then finally committed himself to deep reform in the Bull Moose campaign of 1912 Incorporating the latest scholarship into a vigorous narrative Dalton reinterprets both the man and his times to create an illuminating portrait that will change the way we see this great man and the Progressive Era The Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Elizabeth A. Pergam, 2017-07-05 An overdue study of a groundbreaking event this is the first book length examination of the Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Intended to rehabilitate Manchester's image at a heady time of economic prosperity the Exhibition became a touchstone for aesthetic social and economic issues of the mid nineteenth century Reverberations of this moment can be followed to the present day in the discipline of art history and its practice in public museums of Europe and America Highlighting the tension between art and commerce philanthropy and profit the book examines the Exhibition's organization and the presentation of the works of art in the purpose built Art Treasures Palace Pergam places the Exhibition in the context of contemporary debates about museum architecture and display With an analysis of the reception of both Ancient and Modern paintings the book questions the function of exhibitions in the construction of an art historical canon The book also provides an essential reference tool a compiled list of all of the paintings exhibited in 1857 that are now in public collections throughout the world with an analysis of the collecting trends manifest in their provenance Curators and Culture Joel J. Orosz, 2002-06-28 The author researched ten museums founded prior to 1870 using primary sources Those chosen comprised a geographically diverse sample of pre 1870 American museums and covered a range of disciplines among them art history and natural science

The Museum Michael S. Shapiro, 1990-07-24 This critical bibliography of museum studies comprises an organized collection of essays on the various types of museums art natural history history science and technology and folk and on general aspects collections education exhibitions etc that cut across the media Most of the essays are cogent substantial if not comprehensive and clear The editor has taken care to see that they follow a similar format of historical essay followed by a full bibliography of items discussed Library Journal As the number of museums in the United States has grown to more than 6500 in this century the museum profession has experienced similar growth In addition to academic training and accreditation programs in the field an expanding body of literature on museum history philosophy and functions has evolved little of which has received the critical attention it deserves This reference volume serves as an up to date guide to this wealth of literature identifying and evaluating works that introduce the general reader the museum studies student and the beginning professional to the history philosophy and functions of museums The volume presents a series of informative historical outlines and critical bibliographic essays on all aspects of museum history philosophy and functions Contributors treat such subjects as art museums natural history museums science and technology museums history museums collections exhibition education and interpretation and the public and museums Each chapter consists of an introductory historical narrative a survey of sources and a bibliographic checklist that contains cited and additional sources A set of appendices include a geographically organized bibliography of museum directories a guide to archives and special collections and a selective list of museum related periodicals The book concludes with a comprehensive general subject index This work will be an important reference tool for museum professionals and cultural historians as well as for courses in museum studies It will also be a valuable addition to both academic and public libraries

Representing the Nation Jessica Evans, David Boswell, 1999 Representing the Nation gathers key writings from leading cultural thinkers to ask what role cultural institutions play in creating and shaping our sense of ourselves as a nation

Civilizing Rituals Carol Duncan, 2005-06-20 Illustrated with over fifty photos Civilizing Rituals merges contemporary debates with lively discussion and explores central issues involved in the making and displaying of art as industry and how it is presented to the community Carol Duncan looks at how nations institutions and private individuals present art and how art museums are shaped by cultural social and political determinants Civilizing Rituals is ideal reading for students of art history and museum studies and professionals in the field will also find much of interest here

Making Museums Matter Stephen Weil, 2012-01-11 In this volume of 29 essays Weil s overarching concern is that museums be able to earn their keep that they make themselves matter in an environment of potentially shrinking resources Also included in this collection are reflections on the special qualities of art museums an investigation into the relationship of current copyright law to the visual arts a detailed consideration of how the museums and legal system of the United States have coped with the problem of Nazi era art and a series of delightfully provocative training exercises for those anticipating entry into the museum field
