Women, Power, and Ethnicity Patricia S.E. Darlington, Becky Michele Mulvaney, 2014-06-03 Powerful women aren't just men walking around in dresses As women continue to assume positions of social leadership in increasing numbers the dynamics of the social construction of power need to be examined Have women adopted traditionally male patterns of behavior in an effort to gain and maintain power in business industry politics academics etc And if not what kind of power are women practicing The authors of Women Power and Ethnicity Working Toward Reciprocal Empowerment endeavored to find out by conducting a research study on how women from various racial and ethnic backgrounds compare and contrast the attributes associated with existing power paradigms traditional empowerment personal authority with an alternate model of power reciprocal empowerment Reciprocal empowerment is a discursive and behavioral style of interaction grounded in reciprocity initiated by people who feel a sense of personal authority Reciprocal empowerment enables people with mutual self interests to rise above obstacles based on social and political structures and to use personal authority to discuss and act on issues openly and honestly in order to effect change Using a qualitative methodology Women Power and Ethnicity includes the results of surveys and interviews with women from seven different ethnic groups in the United States to determine if the concept of reciprocal empowerment resonates with them The answer Yes Women Power and Ethnicity is organized by surveys and interview findings on women from seven cultural groups living in the United States African Asian Caribbean European Latin Middle Eastern Native American Each chapter includes analyses of ethnographic findings surveys and interviews concise historical information effects of immigration where applicable tables and diagrams direct quotes and much more Women Power and Ethnicity examines women's attitudes toward power in several social forums home job religion politics and society in general The book is an essential resource for teachers and students of communication studies women studies gender studies ethnic studies and social sciences Vision and Values in Managing Education Judith Bell, Bernard T. Harrison, 2018-05-11 Originally published in 1995 This book argues that in order to fulfil its task of moving schools and colleges forward to meet the demands of the future the management of education must be inspired by both value and vision applied to the actual management of people and resources Part 1 examines key critical issues that should guide principles of school and college management Part 2 identifies key aspects of the management and leadership of people including case studies of effective team leadership Part 3 deals with the management of all educational resources to achieve improvement and success in schools and colleges Leadership Education 1992-1993 Frank H. Freeman, Sara N. King, 1992 The SOURCE BOOK is a reference volume that provides readers with current information on the latest resources in leadership development The fourth in a series the 1992 1993 edition offers two new sections along with updates to previous editions Leadership Technologies a new section on instruments simulations Annotated Bibliography Films Resource Persons in Leadership Education Resource Organizations in Leadership Education 915 545 2805 FAX 919 288 3999 Who Supports the Family? Jean L. Potuchek, 1997 In a dual earner marriage why is a wife's paid employment much less likely to be defined as breadwinning than her husband's This book uses data from a study of 153 dual earner couples to examine the allocation of responsibility for breadwinning and the social construction of gender in their marriages The author carefully distinguishes breadwinning from paid employment and uses the insights of gender construction theory to illuminate that distinction Gender construction theory sees gender as a system of social relations that is continually and actively created in the social interactions of daily life Using both quantitative and qualitative analyses this book demonstrates that despite the prevalence of dual earner marriages breadwinning is still widely used as a boundary that creates gender by distinguishing the meaning of men's employment from that of women's The author argues that though the extent to which breadwinning is used as a gender boundary is strongly influenced by adult experiences and circumstances and by the material conditions of couples' lives it is not determined by these factors Rather the meanings attached to husbands and wives' employment are actively constructed through a process of negotiation that is characterized by both contention and cooperation Moreover this is a highly dynamic process the breadwinning boundary is renegotiated and reconstructed in response to disagreement to changing circumstances and to shifts in other related gender boundaries Through its detailed analysis of breadwinning and its development of gender boundaries as a theoretical concept this book provides new insight into gender relations and makes a contribution to gender construction theory At the same time it is engagingly written and provides moving glimpses of the real life dilemmas of dual earner couples For Whose Protection? Sally Jane Kenney, 1992 Probes the complex issues that underlie policies regarding women's reproduction and the workplace
