Paths Toward A Clearing Radical Empiricism And Ethnographic Inquiry:

Paths Toward a Clearing Michael Jackson, 1989 edition unseen 12 95 traditions bringing into being new modes of understanding Paper Anthropology and particularly ethnography is torn between two quests one to capture the diversity of social life and the other to discover universal principles structuring that diversity Jackson examines these quests within the context of ethnographic fieldwork focusing on the relationship between ethnographers and the people they study He is concerned with defining the anthropological project as something more than the projection of the anthropologist's traditions and concerns onto an alien culture Rather he would have the project open a genuine dialogue between people from different cultures or Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Paths Toward a Clearing Michael Jackson, 1989

How to Read Ethnography Paloma Gay y Blasco, Huon Wardle, 2019-04-08 How to Read Ethnography is an essential guide to approaching anthropological texts It helps students to cultivate the skills they need to critically examine and understand how ethnographies are built up as well as to think anthropologically and develop an anthropological imagination of their own The authors reveal how ethnographically informed anthropology plays a distinctive and valuable role in comprehending the complexity of the world we live in This fully revised second edition includes fresh excerpts from key texts for analysis and comparison along with lucid explanations In addition to concerns with argument authority and the relationship between theory and data the book engages with the purpose value and accountability of ethnographic texts as well as with their reception and usage A brand new chapter looks at the kinds of collaboration between informants consultants and anthropologists that go into the making of ethnographic writing Turning Points in Qualitative Research Yvonna S. Lincoln, Norman K. Denzin, 2003 Reader outlining key developments in the recent history of interpretive social science methods Disclosing Elite Ecologies Bas van Heur, David Bassens, 2021-07-26 Disclosing elite ecologies Methodologies for Doing Urban Elite Research offers a set of methodologies to chart urban elites Whereas most research has focused on the global super rich this book pays specific attention to the multidimensional urban geographies of elite reproduction and transformation as elites depend on urban contexts for capital accumulation consumption and leisure and housing Adopting an interdisciplinary approach to the topic contributing authors discuss various theoretical and methodological antecedents in urban studies and related areas of research that have investigated economic elites Building on but also moving beyond these bodies of literature the book rejects a priori definitions of the size and shape of this social group and instead pursues relational place specific conceptualizations of elite composition and behavior In particular the contributions to the volume show that urban elite research benefits from paying more attention to i boundary work between elites and non elites ii intra elite competition and distinction iii national state spaces in determining elite composition and iv the urban sense of belonging of economic elites This extensive volume provides readers with various empirical inroads into the study of urban elites drawing on research set in Brussels Fez London Lyon Madrid Manchester Milan New York City Paris and Porto Alegre Taking inspiration from urban and economic geography elite theory and urban sociology cultural sociology political economy anthropology criminology architecture and migration studies this book aims to open up the opportunity for methodological cross fertilization The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography

Islam, Women's Sexuality and Patriarchy in Indonesia Irma Riyani,2020-11-26 This book explores the intimate marital relationships of Indonesian Muslim married women As well as describing and analysing their sexual relationships the book also investigates how Islam influences discourses of sexuality in Indonesia and in particular how Islamic teachings affect Muslim married women s perceptions and behaviour in their sexual relationships with their husbands Based on extensive original research the book reveals that Muslim women perceive marriage as a social cultural and religious obligation that they need to fulfil that they realise that finding an ideal marriage partner is complicated with some having the opportunity for a long courtship and others barely knowing their partner prior to marriage and that there is a strong tendency with some exceptions for women to consider a sexual relationship in marriage as their duty and their husband s right Religious and cultural discourses justify and support this view and consider refusal a sin dosa or taboo pamali Both discourses emphasise obedience towards husbands in marriage and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer, 2019-09-12 A look at a prize winning documentarian whose work with aboriginal Australians and others united the fields of film and anthropology in the 1960s and 70s In Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer argues that while social anthropology and documentary film share historic roots and goals particularly on the continent of Australia their trajectories have tended to remain separate This book reunites film and anthropology through the works of Roger Sandall a New Zealand born filmmaker and Columbia University graduate who was part of the vibrant avant garde and social documentary film culture in New York in the 1960s Mentored by Margaret Mead in anthropology and Cecile Starr in fine arts Sandall was eventually hired as the one man film unit at the newly formed Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1965 In the 1970s he became a lecturer in anthropology at the University of Sydney Sandall won First Prize for Documentary at the Venice Film Festival in 1968 yet his films are scarcely known even in Australia now Mortimer demonstrates how Sandall s films continue to be relevant to contemporary discussions in the fields of anthropology and documentary studies She ties exploration of the making and restriction of Sandall s aboriginal films and his nonrestricted films made in Mexico Australia and India to the radical history of anthropology and the resurgence today of an expanded existential phenomenological anthropology that encompasses the vital connections between humans animals things and our environment The Varieties of Magical Experience Lynne L. Hume Ph.D.,Nevill Drury,2013-01-24 A rare combination of personal and academic this book showcases the myriad avenues for transcending the boundaries of reality through direct sensory experience The Varieties of Magical Experience Indigenous Medieval and Modern Magic provides a comprehensive volume that examines magic in all its aspects Through detailed case studies verbatim accounts of personal experiences and first hand experience from the authors own active participation in many alternative religious rituals and ceremonies this unique book reveals how magic can be a universal phenomenon that crosses cultural historical and spatial boundaries The work is organized in five sections that embrace several broad themes indigenous magical and shamanic practices medieval witchcraft sorcery and hermetic magic and contemporary Western magical practices including the role of sexuality trance and meditation The introductory section explores the idea of magic other realities and the employment of all the senses while the final section discusses contemporary issues of ecology and cybermagic The authors give voice to the powerful emotions and feelings that result from a magical encounter providing engaging and accessible information to general readers while those well versed in the opaque world of magic and occultism consciousness studies and imaginal and disembodied realms will appreciate the book s content at a deeper level

Practitioner-Based Research Dawn Freshwater,John Lees,2018-03-26 Practitioner Based Research is concerned in particular with the research which is undertaken by healthcare practitioners and the evidence which they generate as a result of investigating their practice In so doing it recognizes that as well as working in academic life practitioner researchers are often working as practitioners outside the Academy It argues that the work of practitioner researchers has a significant contribution to make to healthcare research and so needs to be disseminated further in order to create balanced research communities within the healthcare professions This book will help academic researchers to broaden the limited ontological and epistemological perspectives of their research It will also encourage healthcare practitioners who have not been trained academically to develop their research skills and to realize that they are actually researching in their practice on a day to day basis Finally it will provide a degree of transparency about therapeutic processes to help clients and patients to see aspects of professional practice and development which are usually hidden from them Building Communication Theories Fred L. Casmir,2013-10-16 Concern with various matters related to humans as they communicate has led to an increase in both research and theorizing during the second half of the 20th century As a matter of fact so many scholars and so many disciplines have become involved in this process that it is virtually impossible to understand and appreciate all that has been accomplished so far This book focuses on one important aspect of human sense making theory building and strives to clarify the thesis that theories do not develop in some sort of social intellectual or cultural vacuum They are necessarily the products of specific times insights and mindsets Theories dealing with the process of communication or communicating are tied to socio cultural value systems and historic factors that influence individuals in ways often inadequately understood by those who use them The process orientation of this book inevitably leads to an emphasis on the perceptions of human beings Thus the focus shifts from the subject or area called communication to the act of communicating Finally this volume offers insight into how the process of human sense making has evolved in those academic fields commonly identified as communication rhetoric speech communication or speech within specific socio cultural settings

Qualitative Research Jurij Fikfak, Frane Adam, Detlef Garz, 2004-01-01

Ethnographically Speaking Arthur P. Bochner, Carolyn Ellis, 2001-12-18 This volume presents the latest explorations of the literary turn in ethnographic work by many of the leading people in the area Centering on autoethnography personal narrative ethnographic performance and the blending of social science and the arts the articles collected here emphasize embodiment experiential understanding participatory ways of knowing sensuous engagement and intimate encounter Drawing from disciplines as diverse as sociology philosophy performance studies communication family therapy and English the authors here demonstrate the many ways in which ethnography can be effectively conducted and expressed The editors weave narrative and conversations surrounding the conference from which these pieces emerged into a reflexive volume which includes poetry stories theatre and visual media as well as critical pieces Accessible and jargon free this book should excite scholars and students as to the expanding possibilities for ethnographic presentation

The Art and Science of Portraiture Sara Lawrence-Lightfoot, Jessica Hoffmann Davis, 2002-10-17 The writing is beautiful the ideas persuasive and the picture it paints of the process of careful observation is one that every writer should read A rich and wonderful book American Journal of Education A landmark contribution to the field of research methodology this remarkable book illuminates the origins purposes and features of portraiture placing it within the larger discourse on social science inquiry and mapping it onto the broader terrain of qualitative research

Ethnography Harry F. Wolcott, 1999 Harry Wolcott one of anthropology s leading writers on ethnographic methods here addresses the nature of the ethnographic enterprise itself Tracing its development from its disciplinary origins in sociology and anthropology he helps the reader understand what is distinctive about ethnography and what it means to conduct research in the ethnographic tradition In this engaging thought provoking book he distinguishes ethnography as more than just a set of field methods and practices separating it from many related qualitative research traditions as a way of seeing through the lens of culture For both beginning and experienced ethnographers in a wide range of disciplines Wolcott s book will provide important ideas for improving research practice
