Patria The Complete Cycle:

Patria R. Murray Schafer, 2002 Here was a very special ritual completely without a sense of striving and promising no rewards You wandered about amused and amazed never sure whether you were there to be entertained or entertaining for the moment you won a balloon or lost your money while upside down on a sky ride you became an actor watched by others and excited by their watching Patria Latin for homeland is composer R Murray Schafer's life's work a cycle of ten related music dramas created and performed over the last thirty years Each play in the cycle has a common theme the search of two lovers for one another through the many labyrinths of life on Earth Though many of the same characters reappear in different sections the scale of the cycle is vast unfolding across many cultures and drawing extensively from numerous world mythologies Many of these works are conceived for performance in unusual environments on the surface of a lake deep in a forest or even in a deserted mine Some begin at dawn sunset or midnight and some last for as long as a week This new definitive edition of Patria contains all ten parts of the cycle plus photos pages from the scores complex visual artworks in their own right commentary on the performance of the pieces and Schafer's personal essays on aestheticism In these remarkable works the arts court one another theatre meets ritual mythology fuses with art and the line between performer and audience blurs Patria: The Complete Cycle Murray R. My Life on Earth and Elsewhere

R. Murray Schafer, 2014-05-14 Music is central to many of R Murray Schafer's memories One of the sounds that I'd almost forgotten until I began to write this chronicle was the tinkling of the piano keys when my mother used to wipe them with a wet cloth he writes In the early years the high and low keys would be passed over quite quickly while the middle notes got the heavy scrubbing The detail of this small nearly forgotten childhood memory is a poignant example of the way sounds can remain present in the imagination even when they are originated in the distant past Schafer recounts childhood summers spent in Manitoba lassoing gophers and being paid two cents a head for them and a music education marked by his cheerful but total resistance to the conventional instruction that was available His youthful travels in Germany France Austria Italy and Eastern Europe are recreated in a lively impressionist style with plenty of comic and melancholy stories gleaned from his diaries of the time including an account of a folk music convention in Communist Romania which he attended with imaginative but shaky credentials identifying him as a representative of the CBC The Globe and Mail the University of Toronto Press and even the Kiwanis Club The conference proving dull Schafer eluded the government minders and took an unauthorized trip to see a girl he had met on the train and despite knowing nothing of the language spent an idyllic few days with her at her parents remote village while the police questioned every young man with a beard in the area of Bucharest in a fruitless search for the suspected spy On his return to Canada teaching assignments took him first to Newfoundland then to Vancouver where he created the World Soundscape Project In 1975 Schafer resigned from university teaching and for many years has devoted himself full time to writing and composing My Life on Earth and Elsewhere continues the story of his domestic and international musical adventures up to the present day

Landscapes in Music David B. Random Acts of Culture Clarke Mackey, 2010-12-08 An unsentimental optimistic book about the art of living in apocalyptic times

The Theatre of Form and the Production of Meaning Richard Paul Knowles, 1999 How do dramatic forms shape social formations This study of Canadian dramatic structures asks this question of an extraordinarily wide range of contemporary plays Knowles begins with a look at inherited naturalistic and modernist forms based respectively on time and space He then uses this division to extend his inquiry first into post naturalist forms of collective and collaborative creations community plays and historical metadramas and then into postmodernist structures of environmental theatre and dialogic monologue The book ends with a brief epilogue on the structures of spacetime as Canadian theatre moves towards a quantum dramaturgy From Michael Cook and David French through George F Walker Judith Thompson and Sally Clark to Monique Mojica John Mighton and feminist performance art this book revolutionizes the study of contemporary Canadian drama It s a thoughtful and timely advance in our ways of thinking about dramaturgical form and meaning in Canadian theatrical production and in Canadian society
