Jairzinho Lopes Pereira,2013-12-11 The book is divided into two parts The first part deals with the development of Augustine stheology of Original Sin and Justification Here the emphasis is placed on the defining moments ofthis development process These moments are the second half of 390s period during which theChurch Father wrote two of his key works De diversis quaestionibus ad Simplicianum 396 397 and Confessiones 397 400 and the last twelve years of his literary career with emphasis on theworks he produced in the heat of the long and bitter confrontation with Julian of Aeclanum In the second part Pereira deals with Luther s doctrines of Original Sin and Justification of the sinner The main source of analysis is Luther s Lectures on Romans 1515 1516 There is an intrinsicrelation between the two parts of the work The author demonstrates how Augustine came tobreak with the patristic soteriology and anthropological theology and adopted the radicalism ofgrace with which he faced the theologians associated with the fifth century Pelagianism especiallyJulian of Aeclanum In the second part Pereira argues that it was precisely that radicalism of grace thatmade of Augustine Luther s favourite theologian The same radicalism of grace was adopted by Luther in his opposition to the recentiores doctores the Nominalist theologians especially Gabriel Biel Without overlooking the crucial role played by the Pauline corpus one can accurately say that Augustine's anti Pelagian thesis were at the core of the young Luther's soteriological and anthropological claims essential to understand what the Lutheran insurgency was all about and were the driving force behind Luther's cry for reformation at least as far as the doctrine of salvation was concerned When it comes to the doctrine of salvation Augustine found in Luther a prominent reader and a faithful follower To understand this fact it would suffice a careful analysis of Luther's doctrine of justification by faith alone since it contains a strong and genuine Augustinian tonality
