Patriotism to the Earth Richard A. Falk,2025-04-15 This book of essays is preoccupied with the contrast between prevailing loyalty to the sovereign state patriotism and an emergent alternative of loyalty to the species and its natural habitat Such an orientation toward ecological patriotism focuses on conditions of human survival ecological stability and cosmological awareness in the Age of the Anthropocene It is a patriotism guided by empirical and normative assessments regarding the deficiencies of the existing world order and its inability to provide the biological economic political ecological cultural ethical and spiritual foundations for the future viability of life on earth Falk s assessment rests on a growing inability of existing policies practices and problem solving arrangements to protect and promote the global national and local public goods on the increasing marginalization of international law global ethics internationalism and spiritual imperatives on a prevailing anachronistic nationalism and related conceptions of national self interest on the unsustainable market driven and state centric world order reinforced by the non accountability of Great Powers on a vital but currently weak disempowered and disoriented UN on a potentially fatal identification of military capabilities arms sales and policing with the pursuit of security as well as for the fulfillment of the extra territorial ambitions of a few rival states and alliances These deficiencies imperil humanity as never before in world history not only the viability of sovereign states regions or localities but the entirety of human experience and overall ecological sustainability Against such a background the most immediate challenge is to create sufficient political traction to overcome settled ideas special interests and habitual ways of acting This does not now seem possible despite the urgency of the situation Empirical indicators suggest strong trends that on balance are reinforcing and accentuating the deficiencies rather than their moving toward their correction Confronting such a reality is not meant to be taken as a recipe for despair On the contrary it is meant to ground prospects for a hopeful future in the realities of our time which presuppose learning to respect the limiting conditions of the carrying capacity of the earth As such it is calling for a politics of impossibility an engagement at all levels of social order with the struggle for a future that exceeds the bounds of perceived feasibility yet from the vantage point of humane global governance that constitutes necessity and equity warranting struggle for the various futures needed and desired by the peoples of the world There are of course no assurances of success but we do know that current modes of sleepwalking into the future do not offer solutions and rather reflect a collective species death wish as the failure to respond in time and scale amounts to a virtual death warrant for many species and their habitats including the human We have always lived amid uncertainty with respect to our own life and death but now we are also challenged by the precarious mortality of the species and planet earth It seems the worst of times but it may yet just possibly become the best of times The inclusion of law ethics and spirituality acknowledge that the values prevailing in civic culture and among the peoples of the world are an essential element of the transformative vision of patriotism being proposed The challenge is not just functional It is a matter of how we choose to live together on the earth what relationships to its resources and limitations are developed and of whether people can be mobilized in ways that overcome obstacles posed by entrenched special interests and civilizational habits deeply embedded in social consciousness The chapters that comprise this book seek to be both down to earth that is grounded in the realities of the present and yet animated by and rooted in a spiritual and cosmopolitan imaginary of what lies ahead It hopes for a reinvention of nationalism by reference to the sky above and land below that is by cosmic cycles of being and by the intimacies of local existence

The Global Citizenship Nexus Debra Chapman,Tania Ruiz-Chapman,Peter Eglin,2020-04-08 In the spirit of Ivan Illich s 1968 speech To hell with good intentions the book takes aim at a ubiquitous form of contemporary ideology namely the concept of global citizenship Its characteristic discourse can be found inhabiting a nexus of four complexes of ruling institutions namely universities with their international service learning the United Nations and allied international institutions bent on global citizenship education international non governmental organizations and foundations promoting social entrepreneurship and global corporations and their mouthpieces pitching corporate social responsibility and sustainable development The question is in the context of Northern or Western imperialism and US led neoliberal global corporate capitalism and the planetary Armageddon they are wringing what is the concept of global citizenship doing for these institutions The studies in the book put this question to each of these four institutional complexes from broadly political economic and post colonial premises focusing on the concept s discursive use against the background of the mounting production of the global non citizen as the global citizen s other Addressed to all users of the concept of global citizen ship from university students and faculty in global studies to social entrepreneurs and United Nations bureaucrats the book s studies ultimately ask whether the idea helps or hinders the global quest for social and economic justice
