an entirely new perspective on life in eighteenth century Ireland We hear the voice of a hard working farmer s wife from county Derry of a rambling weaver from county Antrim and that of a woman dying from drink We learn about whale fishing in county Donegal about farming in county Kerry and bull baiting in Dublin In fact almost every aspect of life in eighteenth century Ireland is described vividly energetically with humor and feeling in the verse of this anthology Among the most moving poems are those by Irish speaking poets who use amhran or song meter and internal assonance both borrowed from Irish in their English verse Equally interesting is the work of the weaver poets of Ulster who wrote in vigorous and energetic Ulster Scots The anthology also includes political poems dating from the reign of James II to the Act of Union as well as a selection of lesser known nationalist and Orange songs Each poem is fully annotated and the book also contains a glossary of terms in Hiberno English and Ulster Scots Australian Books in Print ,1990 Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... ,1918 Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... and Year Book of American Poetry ,1919 The Journal of Asian Studies ,1964
