Pattern Of Economic Development Pakistan:

Pakistan - the Political Economy of Growth, Stagnation and the State, 1951-2009 Matthew McCartney, 2011-06-07 This book provides a comprehensive reassessment of the development of the economy of Pakistan from independence to the present. It argues that the factors which bring about economic development in countries with high levels of deprivation are best understood by considering changing overall approaches where shifts in approaches do not always coincide with changes in political regimes.

Exports, Politics, And Economic Development John Q Adams, 2019-03-04 During the 1970s Pakistan's export policies went through two major transformations as a result of realignments among its internal interest groups bringing about significant changes in export composition and performance. As leader of a coalition of labor, small business and other mass interests, President Z A Bhutto supported a more equitable distribution.

Labor, Democratization and Development in India and Pakistan Christopher Candland, 2007-12-20 In this first comparative study of organized labor in India and Pakistan, the author analyses the impact and role of organized labor in democratization and development. The study provides a unique comparative history of Indian and Pakistani labor politics. It begins in the early twentieth century when permanent unions first formed in the South Asian Subcontinent. Additionally, it offers an analysis of changes in conditions of work and terms of service in India and Pakistan and of organized labor's response. The conclusions shed new light on the influence of organized labor in national politics, economic policy, economic welfare and at the workplace. It is demonstrated that the protection of workers has desirable outcomes not only for those workers covered but also for democratic practice and for economic development.

A Select Bibliography On Economic Development John P. Powelson, 2019-05-20 This bibliography of more than 2 000 titles contains both books and journal articles, primarily those published since 1970. Most of the entries are annotated. The material is classified according to forty-eight categories and there is also a list of relevant titles for each major country in Africa, Asia and Latin America.
