how the eternal fascination with the oldest still running archaeological projects in the world began developed and continue until now Alpine Industrial Landscapes Marcello Modica,2022-06-06 This Open Access book presents a pioneering research on brownfield redevelopment in mountain regions and specifically in the European Alps The origins and causes the actual conditions as well as the future challenges and potentials of mountain brownfields are investigated from an interdisciplinary yet landscape centered perspective Through the reasoned combination of research by design methods and case study analysis the book explores the infrastructural relevance of these sites for the specific mountain territory while advancing an innovative structuralist systemic approach for their physical and functional transformation The book includes among others a first transnational geo mapping of Alpine brownfields whose impressive outcomes in terms of site numbers and distribution can only confirm the urgency of this research Roads and Ruins Paul Baxa,2010-01-01 In the 1930s the Italian Fascist regime profoundly changed the landscape of Rome s historic centre demolishing buildings and displacing thousands of Romans in order to display the ruins of the pre Christian Roman Empire This transformation is commonly interpreted as a failed attempt to harmonize urban planning with Fascism s ideological exaltation of the Roman Empire Roads and Ruins argues that the chaotic Fascist cityscape filled with traffic and crumbling ruins was in fact a reflection of the landscape of the First World War In the radical interwar transformation of Roman space Paul Baxa finds the embodiment of the Fascist exaltation of speed and destruction with both roads and ruins defining the cultural impulses at the heart of the movement Drawing on a wide variety of sources including war diaries memoirs paintings films and government archives Roads and Ruins is a richly textured study that offers an original perspective on a well known story L'officina del contemporaneo, Venezia '50-'60 Luca Massimo Barbero,1997
