National Encampment United Spanish War Veterans, 1940 An Autobiography and Other Writings Anthony Trollope, 2014 This classic study of the working life of a professional writer is one of the best and also one of the strangest autobiographies ever written After a miserable childhood and misspent youth Trollope turned his life around at the age of twenty six By 1860 the hobbledehoy had become both a senior civil servant and a best selling novelist He worked for the Post Office for many years and stood unsuccessfully for Parliament Best known for the two series of novels grouped loosely around the clerical and political professions the Barsetshire and Palliser series in his Autobiography Trollope frankly describes his writing habits His apparent preoccupation with contracts deadlines and earnings and his account of the remorseless regularity with which he produced his daily quota of words has divided opinion ever since As the Introduction to this edition shows Trollope selected and exaggerated to create his compelling narrative of initial failure and eventual success and the inspiration that fuelled his creative imagination has too easily been overlooked The only autobiography by a major Victorian novelist Trollope's record offers a fascinating insight into his literary life and opinions This edition also includes a selection of his critical writings to show how subtle and complex his approach to literature really was Proceedings ... National Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans United Spanish War Veterans, 1940 My Own Casablanca Peter Clements, 2021-03-12 In 1952 John Taverner recently discharged from the British army meets Felix Mole by chance on platform three of the Swindon railway station Mole is the owner of Sam's a saloon and gaming establishment in Tangier Over a British railway breakfast Felix offers John a job looking after the accounts at Sam's should he ever be in Tangier Disillusioned with life in postwar England young Taverner throws caution to the wind and takes off for Morocco for a new life in the International Zone that is Tangier He finds on his arrival that in spite of his lack of experience Felix wants him to not only manage the accounts but take over the running of Sam's The people he works with in Tangier are a far cry from those in his native Dorset and the adventures he experiences are far beyond anything he would ever have imagined including smuggling the Cold War and relationships of a romantic nature Living Church Quarterly, 1887 Tahoe National Forest (N.F.), Land and Resource(s) Management Plan (LRMP), 1990 Winning the Crowd Jonathan Ashbach, 2025-01-15 How are the films we watch shaping our political worldview Studies show that films shape us they affect our values our beliefs and our actions Consequently understanding the messages reinforced by many popular films is vital for

Mark Sandy, 2017-03-02 Beginning with a reassessment of contemporary romantic studies this book provides a modern critical comparison of Keats and Shelley The study offers detailed close readings of a variety of literary genres including the romance lyric elegy and literary fragment adopted by Keats and Shelley to explore their poetic treatment of self and form The poetic careers of Keats and Shelley embrace a tragic affirmation of those darker elements latent in the earlier writings to meditate on their own posthumous reception and reputation Fresh readings of Keats and Shelley show how they conceive of the self as fictional and anticipate Nietzsche's modern theories of subjectivity Nietzsche's conception of the subject as a site of conflicting fictions usefully measures this emergent sense of poetic self and form in Keats and Shelley This Nietzschean perspective enriches our appreciation of the considerable artistic achievement of these two significant second generation romantic poets
