Transmodern Literatures in the 21st Century Of f Limits offers an in depth examination of how transmodern literatures in English over the last two decades have addressed the phenomenon of the limit The 14 chapters that make up the volume examine how geographical racial ethnical sociocultural generical ontological epistemological and other limits are articulated transgressed and reconfigured in recent narratives by authors writing in a wide variety of transmodern trends such as Afro and Africanfuturism Young Adult feminist science fiction food fiction air travel fiction the networked novel and future narratives amongst others They thereby expose and challenge hierarchised binary dichotomies as Euro and Anthropocentric exclusionary discursive constructs that have kept non hegemonic voices off limits To counter the detrimental effects of the neoliberal grand narrative of globalisation the chapters as well as the narratives of the limit they analyse emphasise an urgent need for inclusiveness relationality and communality Virilio Live John Armitage,2001-08-21 Edited by one of the leading Paul Virilio authorities this book offers the reader a guide through Virilio s work Using the interview form Virilio speaks incisively and at length about a vast assortment of cultural and theoretical topics including architecture and speed space chronopolitics art and technoculture modernism postmodernism and hypermodernism the time of the trajectory and the information bomb His thoughts on Foucault Baudrillard Deleuze and Guattari the performance artist Stelarc the Persian War and the Kosovo War are also gathered together Virilio for Architects John Armitage,2015-06-26 Paul Virilio is an innovative figure in the study of architecture space and the city Virilio for Architects primes readers for their first encounter with his crucial texts on some of the vital theoretical debates of the twenty first century including Oblique Architecture and Bunker Archeology Critical Space and the Overexposed City The Ultracity and Very High Buildings Grey Ecology and Global Hypermovement In exploring Virilio's most important architectural ideas and their impact John Armitage traces his engagement with other key architectural and scientific thinkers such as Claude Parent Benoit B Mandelbrot and Bernard Tschumi Virilio for Architects allows students researchers and non academic readers to connect with Virilio's distinctive architectural theories critical studies and fresh ideas

New Directions for Criminology Ronnie Lippens, Patrick van Calster, 2010 Criminology by its very nature as a non disciplinary field of research and scholarship has always relied on theoretical perspectives derived from external disciplines and bodies of literature for its constant renewal The editors of New Directions for Criminology chose to consult scholars from outside the criminological community to demonstrate how the latest theoretical work in their field can be made fruitful for criminology All contributors are familiar with the fundamentals of criminological theories and research and all are well placed to clearly make the connections between the cutting edge of their field of research and its potential for criminology New Directions for Criminology makes a distinction between papers that elaborate on the usefulness of particular theories and perspectives for criminology and papers that outline particular research themes which will be of interest to those working within the broader criminological community Contents include Why Criminal Law Why Break It If Broken Then What Criminology and Assemblage Theory Criminology and Deleuzoguattarism Criminology and Lacan's Psychoanalytical Approach Criminology and Forms of Life Foundations and Origins as Criminological Objects Criminological Conversations Criminological Tribes

Trauma, Postmodernism and the Aftermath of World War II P. Crosthwaite, 2009-01-29 The first sustained study of the relationship between Anglo American postmodernist fiction and the Second World War Crosthwaite demonstrates that postmodernism has not abandoned history but has rather reformulated it in terms of trauma that is traceable time and again to the catastrophes of the 1940s

Escape Into the Future John Stroup, Glenn W. Shuck, 2007 Escape into the Future analyzes the power of pessimism showing links between present day religious pessimism and the nihilism of popular culture Stroup and Shuck rummage through an interesting and eclectic body of pop culture from Fight Club to X Files to the Left Behind series pointing out the presence of pessimistic themes throughout This volume identifies and illuminates the religious language used in these works to articulate America s need to escape from its present cultural path and ultimately provide hope that it might do so

Deleuze and Environmental Damage Mark Halsey, 2017-05-15 This book offers a post structuralist critique of the problems associated with modernist accounts of environmental harm and regulation Through a notably detailed micro political analysis of forest conflict the author explores the limits of academic commentary on environmental issues and suggests that the traditional variables of political economy race and gender need to be recast in light of four key modalities through which the environment and environmental damage are re produced Focusing on vision speed lexicon and affect the book engages a new ethic for categorizing and regulating nature and challenges criminologists sociologists cultural theorists and others to reconsider what it is possible to say and do about environmental problems

Affect, Architecture, and Practice Akari Nakai Kidd,2021-05-17 Affect Architecture and Practice builds on and contributes to work in theories of affect that have risen within diverse disciplines including geography cultural studies and media studies challenging the nature of textual and representational based research Although numerous studies have examined how affect emerges in architectural spaces little attention has been paid to the creative process of architectural design and the role that affect plays in the many contingencies and uncertainties that arise in the process The book traces the critical philosophic and architectural theories to examine how affect architecture and practice are interlinked Through a series of conversations and reflections it examines three key contemporary architects their practices and projects all within a single coherent theme Reiser Umemoto RUR Architecture DPC USA Kerstin Thompson Architects Australia and Shigeru Ban Architects Japan are critically studied through the lens of different aspects of practice namely image making the design process and the making of an everyday object material Through this investigation author Akari Nakai Kidd demonstrates how affect theory allows a critical interrogation of the in between of practice its liminality and limits It questions the stability of objects the smooth temporality of practice and its often under conceptualised non human dimensions More significantly the book demonstrates architectural practice s contribution to the reconceptualisation of theories of affect

Grace and Gravity Lars Spuybroek,2020-11-26 How do we live well The first sentence of Grace and Gravity raises the fundamental question that constantly occupies our minds and of all those who lived before us Paradoxically the impossibility of answering this question opens up the very room needed to find ways of living well It is the gap where all disciplines fall short where architecture does not fit its inhabitants where economy is not based on shortage where religion cannot be explained by its followers and where technology works far beyond its own principles According to Lars Spuybroek the prize winning former architect this marks the point where the paradoxical machine of grace reveals its powers a point where we cannot say if we are moving or being moved Following the trail of grace leads him to a new form of analysis that transcends the age old opposition between appearances and technology Linking up a dazzling and often delightful variety of sources monkeys paintings lamp posts octopuses tattoos bleeding fingers rose windows robots smart phones spirits saints and fossils with profound meditations on living death consciousness and existence Grace and Gravity offers an eye opening provocation to a wide range of art historians architects theologians anthropologists artists media theorists and philosophers
