Thessalonians to Titus Phil Moore,2014-05-15 The five letters from 1 Thessalonians to Titus form a discipleship training school for anyone who wants God to transform their life Paul was forced to flee the city of Thessalonica so quickly the he wrote 1 Thessalonians as the first lesson in his discipleship training school teaching us how to be true converts He was unable to return so he wrote 2 Thessalonians as a second lesson which teaches us how to be true warriors The last three letters were to individual graduates Titus lays out the syllabus which we need in order to be truly fruitful 1 Timothy explains how his young graduate can help the Ephesians to become truly mature in their faith and 2 Timothy acts as Paul s final will and testament in which he assures his converts that they are truly ready to continue the work after his death The Straight to the Heart of series of devotional commentaries allow people to get to grips with each book of the Bible one bite at a time Phil Moore focuses on key sections which together form a useful introduction There will be 25 volumes in all each containing 60 readings The short chapters are punchy and relevant yet crammed with fascinating scholarship The Heavenly Trumpet Margaret Mary Mitchell,2002-01-01 Arguing that all Pauline interpretation depends significantly on the ways in which readers formulate their own images of the apostle Margaret M Mitchell posits that John Chrysostom the most prolific interpreter of the Pauline epistles in the early church exemplifies this phenomenon Mitchell brings together Chrysostom s copious portraits of Paul of his body his soul and his life circumstances and for the first time analyzes them as complex rhetorical compositions built on well known conventions of Greco Roman rhetoric Two appendices offer a fresh translation of Chrysostom s seven homilies de laudibus sancti Pauli and a catalogue of color plates of artistic representations that graphically represent the author exegete dynamic this study explores The Zippered Heart Marilyn Meberg,2002-01-05

Why did I say that Why did I do that Where on earth did those mean thoughts and motivations come from I m so glad no one can read my mind We all get whiplashed and sometimes broadsided by the dark side of our nature which produces thoughts and behaviors that cause us to feel ashamed many of us deny that part of ourselves and kick it off somewhere in the shadowy recesses of the heart where we hope it will stay put not cause us any more trouble and hopefully not be noticed In The Zippered Heart Marilyn does a gentle exploration of those secrets and issues which if denied can rob us of the abundant life we are promised in Christ God means for us to be whole This book is an encouragement in that process This book will change lives because it requires that we look precisely at both the dark and the light sides of ourselves Then it brings an overflowing

Ann Jervis,2007-05-10 Suffering while part of the human condition is a state of being we would rather ignore L Ann Jervis here presents a convincing argument that human suffering is worth considering and she offers the words of Paul as proof Paul s insights into the predicament and significance of suffering provide the foundation for some of Christianity s most profound and unique contributions to understanding human life Examination of three of his letters Thessalonians Philippians and Romans reveals his important reflections on accepting the suffering of believers with the conviction that even as we suffer God's plan for creation does not include suffering and God will ultimately banish it. As a result, believing sufferers are not victims of suffering. Jervis hopes that hearing Paul's words on suffering in a fresh light may allow readers to be deeply marked like the saints and shapers of Christianity by the power of a gospel of which it is not necessary to be ashamed precisely because it is not easy but transformative. NIV, Discover God's Heart Devotional Bible Walk Thru the Bible, 2014-09-09.
