Paulas Plantscape Se:

The Landscape and Pastoral Painters of Holland Frank Cundall, 1891 Mapping the Catholic Cultural Landscape Sister Paula Jean Miller, Richard Fossey, 2004-02-09 Mapping the Catholic Cultural Landscape explores the intersection of Catholicism with cultural expressions of literature and art holiness and personal devotion faith and secular society With essays selected from the world's first International Conference of Catholic Studies this volume is a primary resource for Catholic Studies directors in curriculum development and for students in the classroom This text emerges as an objective way of studying the relationship between religion history and culture Rock and Roll and the American Landscape Stuart Rosenberg, 2009-09 Stuart Rosenberg traces the growth of rock and roll music from its beginnings in 1955 through the end of the 1960s During this fifteen year period rock and roll became a major industry creating a new generation of songwriters recording artists producers and entrepreneurs and introducing a variety of new musical genres From the emergence of Elvis Presley and rock and roll's early pioneers in the mid 1950s to the teen idols of the late 1950s to the British invasion and the soul of Motown and Stax in the mid 1960s to the progressive rock of the late 1960s Rock and Roll and the American Landscape presents an intellectual perspective while chronicling the people and the events that shaped the popular culture

Fieldwork in Landscape Architecture Thomas Oles, Paula Horrigan, 2024-09-30 Fieldwork in Landscape Architecture Methods Actions Tools addresses the initial encounters between landscape designer and landscape site an encounter that determines the entire course of the design process The book offers a four part framework what you seek what you carry how you act and what you leave behind for learning and practicing fieldwork as a landscape design skill and contains over sixty first person accounts by international practitioners and educators about the methods and tools they bring to the field from drones to dance The first title of its kind Fieldwork will be an invaluable resource for students and instructors of landscape architecture as well as for anyone interested in the practice and experience of direct encounter with real places Fixing Landscape Corey Byrnes, 2019-01-15 In 1994 workers broke ground on China's Three Gorges Dam By its completion in 2012 the dam had transformed the ecology of the Yangzi River displaced over a million people and forever altered a landscape immortalized in centuries of literature and art The controversial history of the dam is well known what this book uncovers are its unexpected connections to the cultural traditions it seems to sever By reconsidering the dam in relation to the aesthetic history of the Three Gorges region over more than two millennia Fixing Landscape offers radically new ways of thinking about cultural and spatial production in contemporary China Corey Byrnes argues that this monumental feat of engineering can only be understood by confronting its status as a techno poetic act a form of landscaping indebted to both the technical knowledge of engineers and to the poetic legacies of the Gorges as cultural site Synthesizing methods drawn from premodern modern and contemporary Chinese studies as well as from critical geography art history and the environmental humanities Byrnes offers innovative readings of eighth century poetry paintings from the twelfth through twenty first centuries contemporary film nineteenth century British travelogues and Chinese and Western maps among other sources Fixing Landscape shows that premodern poetry and visual art have something urgent to tell us about a contemporary experiment in spatial production Poems and paintings may not build dams but Byrnes argues that the Three Gorges Dam would not exist as we know it without them Forms of English History in Literature, Landscape, and Architecture J. Twynning, 2012-10-15 An exploration of the way English literature has interacted with architectural edifices and the development of landscape as a national style from the Middle Ages to the 19th Century Analyzing texts in relation to cultural artefacts each chapter demonstrates the self conscious production of English consciousness as its most enduring history

Paula Hayes Paula Hayes, Richard D. Marshall, 2012-05-22 Artist Paula Hayes is most famous for her exquisite high end art terrariums of organically shaped handblown glass but her affinity for all things green extends to full gardens as well She has created over twenty full gardens for private clients around the country This volume the first monograph on her work is structured in a two part format that devotes equal attention to both A fixture of the New York art scene for over twenty years Paula Hayes's popularity among art collectors and the public has swelled dramatically over the past few Her installation in the lobby of MoMA Nocturne of the Limax Maximus garnered much critical acclaim and landed her a feature on CBS Sunday Morning She installed an oversized terrarium in the lobby of Lever House in New York City and a solo exhibition on her work was held at the Wexler Art Center in Columbus Ohio where she also installed a permanent garden adjacent to the museum's main entrance Women, Modernity, and Landscape Architecture Sonja Dümpelmann, John Beardsley, 2015-02-11

Modernity was critically important to the formation and evolution of landscape architecture yet its histories in the discipline are still being written This book looks closely at the work and influences of some of the least studied figures of the era established and less well known female landscape architects who pursued modernist ideals in their designs The women discussed in this volume belong to the pioneering first two generations of professional landscape architects and were outstanding in the field They not only developed notable practices but some also became leaders in landscape architectural education as the first professors in the discipline or prolific lecturers and authors As early professionals who navigated the world of a male dominated intellectual and menial work force they were exponents of modernity In addition many personalities discussed in this volume were either figures of transition between tradition and modernism like Silvia Crowe Maria Teresa Parpagliolo or they fully embraced and furthered the modernist agenda like Rosa Kliass Cornelia Oberlander The chapters offer new perspectives and contribute to the development of a more balanced and integrated landscape architectural historiography of the twentieth century Contributions come from practitioners and academics who discuss women based in USA Canada Brazil New Zealand South Africa the former USSR Sweden Britain Germany Austria France and Italy Ideal reading for those studying landscape history women's studies and cultural geography Eating the Landscape Enrique Salmón, 2012-11-15 Eating is not only a political act it is also a cultural act that reaffirms one's identity and worldview Enrique Salm n writes in Eating the Landscape Traversing a range of cultures including the Tohono O odham of the Sonoran Desert and the Rar muri of the Sierra Tarahumara the book is an illuminating journey through the southwest United States and northern Mexico Salm n weaves his historical and cultural knowledge as a renowned indigenous ethnobotanist with stories American Indian farmers have shared with him to illustrate how traditional indigenous foodways from the cultivation of crops to the preparation of meals are rooted in a time honored understanding of environmental stewardship In this fascinating personal narrative Salm n focuses on an array of indigenous farmers who uphold traditional agricultural practices in the face of modern changes to food systems such as extensive industrialization and the genetic modification of food crops Despite the vast cultural and geographic diversity of the region he explores Salm n reveals common themes the importance of participation in a reciprocal relationship with the land the connection between each group s cultural identity and their ecosystems and the indispensable correlation of land consciousness and food consciousness Salm n shows that these collective philosophies provide the foundation for indigenous resilience as the farmers contend with global climate change and other disruptions to long established foodways This resilience along with the rich stores of traditional ecological knowledge maintained by indigenous agriculturalists Salm n explains may be the key to sustaining food sources for humans in years to come As many of us begin to question the origins and collateral costs of the food we consume Salm n s call for a return to more traditional food practices in this wide ranging and insightful book is especially timely Eating the Landscape is an essential resource for ethnobotanists food sovereignty proponents and advocates of the local food and slow food movements

Landscape, Nature, and the Sacred in Byzantium Veronica della Dora, 2016-02-04 Explores Byzantine perceptions of creation and different types of natural environments and the principles underpinning such perceptions

The Balance Sheet, 1989 Nitrogen in Agricultural Landscape Lech Wojciech Szajdak, 2021-06-17 Agriculture transforms the environment The simplification of agroecosystems structure increases the hazards of leaching wind and water erosion and volatilization of chemicals from soil Soil nitrogen is of interest as a major crop nutrient but also as a potential environmental pollutant Knowledge about the behavior of soil nitrogen is desirable in order to optimize plant growth and crop yield and to minimize environmental side effects This book also gives information about the function of biogeochemical barriers in the form of shelterbelts which efficiently decrease the concentrations of various forms of nitrogen in ground water

A Landscape of Contemporary Theories of International Law Emmanuel Roucouas, 2019-09-16 This rich and remarkable volume offers an overview of the most important schools movements and trends which make up the theoretical landscape of contemporary international law as well as the works of over 500 authors It moves beyond generalization and examines how the relevant literature deals with the basic issues of the international legal system such as international obligations legitimacy compliance unity and universality the rule of law human rights use of force and economics It offers insights into the addressees the state international organizations individuals and other private persons and the construction of international law including law making the relationship between norms and interpretation Moreover it widens the discourse by addressing old yet enduring as well as new concerns about the functioning of the international legal system and presents views of non international lawyers and political scientists regarding that system It is a valuable analysis for researchers students and practitioners

Dosso Dossi Peter Humfrey, Dosso Dossi, Mauro Lucco, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), J. Paul Getty Museum, 1998 Dosso's rich color schemes are akin to those of his fellow North Italian Titian he learned something about innovative composition from Raphael and about the force of the body from Michelangelo But his paintings have a very individual appeal In leafy natural surroundings containing an array of animals and heavenly bodies events unfold that are often enigmatic enacted by characters whose interrelationships elude definition
