Pauline At The Beach:

PAULINE AT THE BEACH Éric Rohmer, 1983      New York Magazine , 1983-08-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      Music in Cinema Michel Chion, 2021-10-12 Michel Chion is renowned for his explorations of the significance of frequently overlooked elements of cinema particularly the role of sound In this inventive and inviting book Chion considers how cinema has deployed music He shows how music and film not only complement but also transform each other The first section of the book examines film music in historical perspective and the second section addresses the theoretical implications of the crossover between art forms Chion discusses a vast variety of films across eras genres and continents embracing all the different genres of music that filmmakers have used to tell their stories Beginning with live accompaniment of silent films in early movie houses the book analyzes Al Jolson s performance in The Jazz Singer the zither in The Third Man Godard s patchwork sound editing the synthesizer welcoming the flying saucer in Close Encounters of the Third Kind and the Kinshasa orchestra in Felicit among many more Chion considers both original scores and incorporation of preexisting works including the use and reuse of particular composers across cinematic traditions the introduction of popular music such as jazz and rock and directors attraction to atonal and dissonant music as well as musique concrète of which he is a composer Wide ranging and original Music in Cinema offers a welcoming overview for students and general readers as well as refreshingly new and valuable perspectives for film scholars      The Film Cheat Murray Pomerance, 2020-10-15 Murray Pomerance venerated film scholar is the first to take on the cheat in film where cheating constitutes a collection of production performance and structuring maneuvers intended to foster the impression of a screen reality that does not exist as presented This usually calls for a suspension of disbelief in the viewer but that rests on the assumption that disbelief is problematic for viewership and that we must find some way to suspend or disconnect it in order to allow for the entertainment of the fiction in its own terms The Film Cheat explores forty five aspects of the cheat analyzing classic films such as Singin in the Rain and Chinatown to more contemporary films like The Revenant and Baby Driver with Pomerance engaging his encyclopedic knowledge of film history to point out numerous instances of suspensions of disbeliefs Whether or not Gene Kelly is actually dancin in the rain or if Elliott is really flying on his bicycle carrying E T these cheats are what make movie magic Elegantly weaving the narrative for one to dip into at random or to read from cover to cover Pomerance turns things upside down so that the audience actually finds pleasure in the cheat itself pleasure in the disbelief To see the elegant fake the supremely accomplished simulacrum is a pleasure in its own right indeed one of the fundamental pleasures of cinema      New York Magazine , 1983-08-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Eric Rohmer Éric Rohmer, 2013 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920-2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award. Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics. Yet Rohmer was already forty years old when Ma Nuit chez Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963. The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer's remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative. Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer's interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music. This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time.

Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea, 2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honoré de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave: Eric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette. It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post-war period. By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice. Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re-appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society. In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressivist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post-war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism.

The Cinematic Influence Peter C. Pugsley, Ben McCann, 2022-12-29 Exploring the multiple aesthetic and cultural links between French and Japanese cinema The Cinematic Influence is packed with vivid examples and case studies of films by Akira Kurosawa Jean-Luc Godard Hirokazu Kore-eda Claire Denis Naomi Kawase Michel Gondry and many others. It illustrates the vast array of cinematic connections that mark a long history of mutual influence and reverence between filmmakers in France and Japan The book provides new insights into the ways that national cinemas resist Hollywood to maintain and strengthen their own cultural practices and how these national cinemas perform the task of informing and enlightening other cultures about what it means to be French or Japanese This book also deepens our understandings of film's role as a viable cultural and economic player in individual nations Importantly the reader will see that film operates as a form of cultural exchange between France and Japan and more broadly Europe and Asia This is the first major book to investigate the crossover between these two diverse national cinemas by tracking their history of shared narrative and stylistic techniques

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2014-05-06 With more than 100 new entries from Amy Adams Benedict Cumberbatch and Cary Joji Fukunaga to Joaquin Phoenix Mia Wasikowska and Robin Wright and completely updated here from David Thomson The greatest living writer on the movies John Banville New Statesman Our most argumentative and trustworthy historian of the screen Michael Ondaatje is the latest edition of The New Biographical Dictionary of Film which topped Sight Sound's poll of international critics and writers as THE BEST FILM BOOK EVER WRITTEN 3 7

Modern European cinema and love Richard Rushton, 2023-05-23 Modern European cinema and love examines nine European directors whose films contain stories about romantic love and marriage The directors are Jean Renoir Ingmar Bergman Alain Resnais Michelangelo Antonioni Agnès Varda François Truffaut Federico Fellini Jean-Luc Godard and Eric Rohmer The book approaches questions of love and marriage from a philosophical perspective applying the ideas of authors such as Stanley Cavell Leo Bersani Luce Irigaray and Alain Badiou while also tracing key concepts from Freudian psychoanalysis Each of the filmmakers engages deeply with notions of modern love and marriage often in positive ways but also in ways that question the institutions of love marriage and the couple

Better Than Babylon Thomas G. Casey, 2012 What is Babylon Babylon is that which blocks our access to the door of possibility that which impoverishes Babylon is the part of Western culture that imprisons us with its seductive images of false happiness and fulfillment Better Than Babylon invites us to break free of our prisons It urges us to reject the subtle enslavement that blinds us to what's important the superficial images that prevent us from touching the soul of things By engaging with key issues in our culture women family education work the environment war and peace author Thomas Casey calls upon us to break through the door and go beyond our habitual ways of looking at them This book is an invitation to go beyond Babylon Babylon comfortable as it may be need not be our lasting prison The world of possibility is much vaster than we dared imagine This truth can set us free from the Introduction God has bigger hopes for us than Babylon could ever entertain Book jacket

Hemingway in Love A. E. Hotchner, 2015-10-20 In June of 1961 A E Hotchner visited an old friend in the psychiatric ward of St Mary's Hospital It would be the last time they spoke a few weeks later Ernest Hemingway was released home where he took his own life Their final conversation was also the final installment in a story whose telling Hemingway had spread over nearly a decade Hemingway divulged the details of the affair that destroyed his first marriage the truth of his romantic life in Paris and how he lost Hadley the true part of the literary woman he'd create and the great love he spent the rest of his life seeking. He told of the mischief that made him a legend of impotence cured in a house of God of a plane crash in the African bush from which he stumbled with a bunch of bananas and a bottle of gin in hand of F. Scott Fitzgerald dispensing romantic advice of midnight champagne with Josephine Baker of adventure, human error and life after lost love. This is Hemingway as few have known him: humble and full of regret. To protect the feelings of Ernest's wife Mary, also a close friend and to satisfy the terms of his publisher's cautious legal review, Hemingway kept the conversations to himself for decades. Now he tells the story as Hemingway told it to him. Hemingway in Love puts you in the room with the master as he remembers the definitive years that set the course for the rest of his life and stayed with him until the end of his days.

The Cinema of Eric Rohmer Jacob Leigh, 2012-05-03 Since the death of the French film director Eric Rohmer in 2010, interest in his work has reignited. Known as the last of the established directors in the French New Wave, Rohmer took complete control over all his films, acting as his own producer throughout his career and writing the scripts. He also made his mark by taking the lead in casting and location scouting, as French seaside resorts with beautiful young people are some of the elements present in most of his films. Combining history and criticism, Jacob Leigh pens the first chronological survey of this understudied filmmaker in order to give readers clear insights into how Rohmer's films came about and what he intended them to be. The book provides in-depth analysis of the themes and ideas of Rohmer's twenty-three feature films and illustrates the complexity of their cinematic style. Leigh's study is the perfect introduction to the work of this great filmmaker for both students and the general reader. New York Magazine, 1985-09-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. studios have operated classics divisions or specialty labels subsidiaries that originally focused on the foreign art house film market while more recently and controversially moving on to the American indie film market This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the phenomenon of the classics divisions by tracing its history since the establishment the first specialty label in 1980 United Artists Classics to more contemporary outfits like Focus Features Warner Independent and Picturehouse This detailed account of all classics divisions examines their business practices their position within the often labyrinthine structure of contemporary entertainment conglomerates and their relationship to their parent companies Yannis Tzioumakis examines the impact of those companies on American indie cinema and argues that it was companies such as Fox Searchlight and Paramount Classics now Paramount Vantage that turned independent filmmaking to an industrial category endorsed by the Hollywood majors as opposed to a mode of filmmaking practised outside the conglomerated major players and posed as a sustained alternative to mainstream Hollywood cinema A number of case studies are provided including such celebrated films as Mystery Train The Brothers McMullen Broken Flowers Before Sunset and many others Eric Rohmer K. Tester, 2008-02-15 Since the 1950s Eric Rohmer has been one of the major presences in French cinema as critic and director This book is a sophisticated engagement with his work in which Keith Tester argues that Rohmer is not the naïve realist he is often claimed to be Instead his films are revealed as a sustained exercise in Catholic theology French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2004-03-31 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest images through the silent era Surrealist influence the Nazi Occupation New Wave and presently Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films from each era providing insight into our favourite films
