Paul's Ethic of Freedom Peter Richardson, 1979      Understanding Paul's Ethics Brian S. Rosner, 1995 This introduction to the study of Paul's ethics collects fourteen essays by notable scholars which with commentary to the editor illumine the origin context social dimension shape logic foundations and relevance of Paul's ethics      The Road from Damascus Richard N. Longenecker, 2002-01-10 Conversion is intrinsic to the Christian Religion The most remarkable conversion recorded in the New Testament is that of Paul and most Christians consider Christ's encounter with Paul to be a prototype of Christian conversion generally This collection of eleven essays give Paul's conversion a firmer rootage in the biblical materials while also emphasizing personal application The contributors examine the nature of Paul's Damascus Road experience and the impact of that experience on his thought and ministry and explore how Paul's experience functions as a paradigm for Christian thought and action today      Theology and Ethics in Paul and His Interpreters Eugene H. Lovering Jr., Jerry L. Sumney, 2017-09-12 This significant volume draws together an exceptional list of contributors to honor the life and work of Victor Paul Furnish Doing credit to the focus and character of Furnish's career as a scholar educator and churchman the individual essays and the volume as a whole have been written in a way that renders them accessible to seminary students in the classroom and that builds substantially on Furnish's own work The book is structured in three parts 1 Theology and Ethics in Paul focusing on individual Pauline texts and on the broader themes foundations and context of Paul's theological and ethical thought 2 Theology and Ethics in Paul's Earliest Interpreters both in the NT and in the church which came to accept Paul's letters as canonical and 3 Paul in Contemporary Theology and Ethics engaging Furnish's own work as well as that of his colleagues and students in the area of Pauline theology and ethics      Christian Identity Characteristics in Paul's Letter to the Members of the Jesus Movement in Galatians Jennifer Slater O.P., 2012-08-30 The author explores the Christian identity characteristics of Paul's letter to the Galatians By so doing she presents Paul's struggle to work out a form of Christianity which includes Jews and Gentiles males and females free and slave on the basis of their common baptism in Christ While the Roman Empire struggled to include many different ethnic groups Paul in Galatians makes a bold breakthrough to a new inclusivity in Christ and his Holy Spirit This solution holds major social implications it can help overcome divisions of race culture nationality or ethnicity The author endeavours to affirm certain equality among people while also realizing that this equality is not absolute in every respect The results of the study of Galatians confronts the situation in the new Republic of South Africa where despite the ultra liberal constitution the country still needs the inclusive and ethical message of Galatians to address the new problems of black on black racism xenophobia homophobia violence against women great corruption in government and irresponsible exercise of authority and freedom Galatians remains crucial for its insistence on social inclusivity and liberating yet real ethics The author is convinced that the eternal truths of Christianity as displayed in the Jesus Movement of antiquity are still relevant in addressing contemporary life issues that

The Self, the Lord, and the Other according to Paul and Epictetus Michael J. Gorman, 2023-03-29 This study explores the relationship between the individual person the self the divine and other people in the writings of the apostle Paul and the Roman Stoic Epictetus It does so by examining self involving actions expressed with reflexive pronouns myself yourself etc in various kinds of sentences for example Examine yourself and You do not belong to yourself After situating the topic within the fields of linguistics and ancient Greek the study then examines the reflexive constructions in Epictetus s Discourses showing that reflexive texts express fundamental aspects of his ethic of rational self interest in imitation of the indwelling rational deity Next the investigation examines the 109 reflexive constructions in Paul providing an exegesis of each reflexive text and then synthesizing the results Paul s reflexive phrases are essential statements of his theology and ethics expressing an interconnected narrative Christology narrative apostolic identity and narrative ethic Most importantly the study finds that for Epictetus concern for others is a rational means to self realization whereas for Paul concern for others is a community ethic grounded in the story of the indwelling Christ and is the antithesis of self interest The Curse of the Law and the Crisis in Galatia Todd A. Wilson, 2018-09-12 Todd Wilson assesses Paul s references to the Law in the so called ethical section of Galatians in light of a fresh appraisal of the Galatian crisis He contributes to the continuing debate over the relevance of this section of the letter for the rest of Galatians and for the situation in Galatia Idol Meat in Corinth Wendell Willis, 2004-06-15 This work has several objectives to understand what the problem of idol meat at Corinth involved to establish the attitude of the Corinthians to this issue what course of conduct had they followed or proposed to follow and how did they seek to defend their position to explain the reply of Paul to the Corinthian inquiry and finally in the process of the exegesis and in the conclusions this study will seek to identify fundamental norms and themes which are operative here as a part of Paul s ethical thought
