Gabriel Faure Edward R. Phillips, 2011-04-14 First published in 2011 this research study includes a biography section as well as the works of Gabriel Urbain Faur born on 12 May 1845 Much of Faur s music especially the late pieces remain little played and little known as a result his reputation as a salon composer of pleasant music continues even among educated musicians The author suggests that it is more likely that the difficulty of much of Faur s music for the listener and the demands it places upon him or her are the principal reasons for its omission from concert programs and for a misunderstanding of Faur s place in the history of French music

The Art of French Piano Music Roy Howat, 2009-01-01 An essential resource for scholars and performers this study by a world renowned specialist illuminates the piano music of four major French composers in comparative and reciprocal context Howat explores the musical language and artistic ethos of this repertoire juxtaposing structural analysis with editorial and performing issues He also relates his four composers historically and stylistically to such predecessors as Chopin Schumann Liszt the French harpsichord school and Russian and Spanish music Challenging long held assumptions about performance practice Howat elucidates the rhythmic vitality and invention inherent in French music In granting Faur and Chabrier equal consideration with Debussy and Ravel he redresses a historic imbalance and reshapes our perceptions of this entire musical tradition Outstanding historical documentation and analysis are supported by Howat s direct references to performing traditions shaped by the composers themselves The book balances accessibility with scholarly and analytic rigor combining a lifetime s scholarship with practical experience of teaching and the concert platform

Gabriel Faur?The Songs and their Poets
Graham Johnson,2017-07-05 The career of Gabriel Faur s a composer of songs for voice and piano traverses six decades 1862 1921 almost the whole history of French m die is contained within these parameters In the 1860s Faur the lifelong prot of Camille Saint Sa was a suavely precocious student he was part of Pauline Viardot s circle in the 1870s and he nearly married her daughter Pointed in the direction of symbolist poetry by Robert de Montesquiou in 1886 Faur as the favoured composer from the early 1890s of Winnarretta Singer later Princesse de Polignac and his songs were revered by Marcel Proust In 1905 he became director of the Paris Conservatoire and he composed his most profound music in old age His existence steadily productive and outwardly imperturbable was undermined by self doubt an unhappy marriage and a tragic loss of hearing In this detailed study Graham Johnson places the vocal music within twin contexts Faur own life story and the parallel lives of his many poets We encounter such giants as Charles Baudelaire and Paul Verlaine the patrician Leconte de Lisle the forgotten Armand Silvestre and the Belgian symbolist Charles Van Lerberghe The chronological range of the narrative encompasses Faur first poet Victor Hugo who railed against Napoleon III in the 1850s and the last Jean de La Ville de Mirmont killed in action in the First World War In this comprehensive and richly illustrated study each of Faur 109 songs receives a separate commentary Additional chapters for the student singer and serious music lover discuss interpretation and performance in both aesthetical and practical terms Richard Stokes provides parallel English translations of the original French texts In the twenty first century musical modernity is evaluated differently from the way it was assessed thirty years ago Faur s no longer merely a Master of Charms circumscribed by the belle que His status as a great composer of timeless
