Performing Arts Resources Vol 5 Recollections Of O Smith Comedian:

Hideous Progenies Steven Earl Forry, 2016-11-11 The Frankenstein we know is not Mary Shelley's creature at all. Rather it is an amalgam of over 200 years of images and dramatizations that range from the ghoulish fiends of nineteenth century sensation dramas to Boris Karloff's movie monster to Mel Brooks's tap dancing giant. These versions treat the Frankenstein myth with varying levels of horror, hysteria and humor but all of them attest to its enduring power. In Hideous Progenies Steven Earl Forry offers a historical overview of the legend's transformation over time beginning with Shelley's original and the earliest popular dramatizations of it which transformed the myth adding a burlesque quality and simplifying its moral allegory and continuing on through the advent of cinema. He also documents this development with actual texts of seven pre 1931 dramatizations, a sampling of cartoons and playbills and a shooting script for the first cinematic version, Thomas Edison's Frankenstein 1910. Forry's rare materials and interesting survey offer a valuable resource for scholars and students of theater history, literary history and popular culture. The Making of the West End Stage Jacky Bratton, 2011-10-13 All roads lead to London and to the West End theatre. This book presents a new history of the beginnings of the modern world of London entertainment. Putting female-centred gender-challenging managements and styles at the centre, it redraws the map of performance history in the Victorian capital of the world. Bratton argues for the importance in Victorian culture of venues like the little Strand Theatre and the Gallery of Illustration in Regent Street in the experience of mid-century London and of plays drawn from the work of Charles Dickens as well as burlesques by the early writers of Punch. Discovering a much more dynamic and often woman-led entertainment industry at the heart of the British Empire, this book seeks a new understanding of the work of women including Eliza Vestris, Mary Ann Keeley and Marie Wilton in creating the template for a magical new theatre of music, feeling and spectacle. Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Books in Print, 1994 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 Choice, 1980 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 British Theatre John P.
