When we encounter
another individual
truly as a person,
not as an object for
use, we become fully human.

Philosophy Of Martin Buber:

The Knowledge of Man Martin Buber, 1965 The Philosophy of Martin Buber Maurice S. Friedman, Paul Arthur Schilpp, 1967 I and Thou Martin Buber, 2012-05-24 I AND THOU is one of the most important books of Western Theology. In it, Martin Buber, heavily influenced by the writings of Nietzsche, unites the proto-Existentialist currents of modern German thought with the Judeo-Christian tradition, powerfully updating faith for modern times. Since its first appearance in Germany in 1923, this slender volume has become one of the epoch-making works of our time. This work is the centerpiece of Buber's philosophy. It lays out a view of the world in which human beings can enter into relationships using their innermost and whole beings to form true partnerships. This is the original English translation, and it was prepared in the author's presence.

The Philosophy of Martin Buber, 1967 A Believing Humanism: My Testament, 1902-1965 Martin Buber, 1967

Martin Buber ["The Philosophy of Martin Buber"] Maurice Friedman, Paul Arthur Schilpp, 1963 Will and Grace Hune Margulies, 2017-11-13 This book is a poetic reading of the dialogical philosophy of Martin Buber. My reading of Martin Buber takes me to this principal insight: God is not in heaven nor on earth; God is not above nor below, not within and not without, not in the soul or in the flesh; God is not an entity anywhere; God is the between of an I and a Thou. These pages are not an academic study in the strict sense; my meditations in this book are not a literal description of Buber's philosophy, for Buber would never have approved of taking his words in any way other than in dialogue. Buber wrote in dialogue with the reader, and I read Buber in the poetic philosophy of his words. In other words, we can say that the essential thinking in Martin Buber's philosophy is that the presence of God in us is always enacted as the presence of God between us. God-like love like poetry is a deed we do; the God-deed is actualized not in rituals or temples but in the practices of the sacraments of the neighbor, for there is nothing we can predicate of God, but we can still meet God in the embrace of the neighbor. We meet God as we meet with one another in genuine relationship; God is not in the relationship; God is the relationship; God is no thing, but there is nothing that isn't God in the between of an I and a Thou. Martin Buber Maurice S. Friedman, 2003-09-02 Martin Buber, The Life of Dialogue, the first study in any language to provide a complete overview of Buber's thought, remains the definitive guide to the full range of his work and the starting point for all modern Buber scholarship. Maurice S. Friedman reveals the implications of Buber's thought for theory of knowledge, education, philosophy, myth, history, and Judaic and Christian belief. This fully revised and expanded fourth edition includes a new preface by the author, an expanded bibliography incorporating new Buber scholarship, and two new appendices in the form of essays on Buber's influence on Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin. The Writings of Martin Buber Martin Buber, 1961 Martin Buber's Life and Work Maurice S. Friedman, 1981 Excerpt from Martin Buber, The Life of Dialogue. This book is the product of a dialogue, a dialogue first with the works of Martin Buber and later with Martin Buber himself. The influence of Buber's thought has steadily spread throughout the last fifty years until today Buber is recognized throughout the world as occupying a position in the foremost ranks of contemporary philosophers theologians and scholars What has made such men as Hermann Hesse and Reinhold Niebuhr speak of Martin Buber as one of the few wise men living on the earth today however is not only his eminence as a thinker but also his concern with the lived concrete the everyday reality which he takes up into his imagining and bears as his responsibility Buber's eightieth birthday on February 8 1958 was celebrated all over the world for Martin Buber is one of the truly universal men of our time More than any other person in the modern world said the Protestant theologian H Richard Niebuhr at one such celebration more even than Kierkegaard Martin Buber has been for me and for many of my companions the prophet of the soul and the witness to that truth which is required of the soul not as solitary but as companionable being In a time in which we are in danger of losing our birthright as human beings Martin Buber has shown us what it means to live as men When in 1944 Dr Simon Greenberg gave me the first book of Buber's that I ever read The Legend of the Baal Shem Buber himself was practically unknown in America and only two of his books were in English both published in England Even when I wrote my doctoral dissertation on Buber in 1950 few had heard of him and few of his books were published here Today more than twenty of Buber's books have been published in English most of them in both England and America several more translations are underway five of his books have been reissued in paperback editions four anthologies of his writings have appeared and several books in English have been written on his thought including the forthcoming Philosophy of Martin Buber volume of The Library of Living Philosophers which I have had the honor of editing In 1951 1952 Buber spent almost a year in America under the auspices of the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1957 he was brought here by the Washington School of Psychiatry to deliver the fourth William Alanson White Memorial Lectures and in 1958 he was brought to this country by Princeton University About the Publisher Forgiven Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgiven Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Educational Philosophy of Martin Buber Adir Cohen, 1983

Martin Buber's Dialogical Thought as a Philosophy of Action Asaf Ziderman, 2024-10-30 This book promotes a philosophical revival of Buber's dialogical thought by repositioning it as a philosophy of action departing from a long established consensus that narrowly viewed it as a post Kantian epistemology Based on careful analysis of his writings the book's main thrust is to reconstruct Buber's argument that dialogue is the perfected form of action and a perfect action is necessarily dialogical This reconstruction renders Buber's dialogical thought pertinent to contemporary analytic philosophy by situating it within central discussions in the field of philosophy of action
