and its connection with various areas of study Encyclopedia of Asian-American Literature Seiwoong Oh,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Asian American literature providing profiles of Asian American writers and their works Foreign Accents Steven G. Yao,2010-10-07 Foreign Accents examines the various transpacific signifying strategies by which poets of Chinese descent in the U S have sought to represent cultural tradition in their articulations of an ethnic subjectivity in Chinese as well as in English In assessing both the dynamics and the politics of poetic expression by writers engaging with a specific cultural heritage the study develops a general theory of ethnic literary production that clarifies the significance of Asian American literature in relation to both other forms of U S minority discourse as well as canonical American literature more generally At the same time it maps an expanded textual arena and a new methodology for Asian American literary studies that can be further explored by scholars of other traditions Yao discusses a range of works including Ezra Pound s Cathay and the Angel Island poems He examines the careers of four contemporary Chinese American poets Ha Jin Li young Lee Marilyn Chin and John Yau each of whom bears a distinctive relationship to the linguistic and cultural tradition he or she seeks to represent Specifically Yao investigates the range of rhetorical and formal strategies by which these writers have sought to incorporate Chinese culture and especially language in their works Combining such analysis with extensive social contextualization Foreign Accents delineates an historical poetics of Chinese American verse from the early twentieth century to the present The Ethics and Poetics of Alterity in Asian American Poetry Xiaojing Zhou,2006-05 Poetry by Asian American writers has had a significant impact on the landscape of contemporary American poetry and a book length critical treatment of Asian American poetry is long overdue In this groundbreaking book Xiaojing Zhou demonstrates how many Asian American poets transform the conventional I of lyric poetry based on the traditional Western concept of the self and the Cartesian I to enact a more ethical relationship between the I and its others Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas s idea of the ethics of alterity which argues that an ethical relation to the other is one that acknowledges the irreducibility of otherness Zhou offers a reconceptualization of both self and other Taking difference as a source of creativity and turning it into a form of resistance and a critical intervention Asian American poets engage with broader issues than the merely poetic They confront social injustice against the other and call critical attention to a concept of otherness which differs fundamentally from that underlying racism sexism and colonialism By locating the ethical and political questions of otherness in language discourse aesthetics and everyday encounters Asian American poets help advance critical studies in race gender and popular culture as well as in poetry The Ethics and Poetics of Alterity is not limited however to literary studies it is an invaluable response to the questions raised by increasingly globalized encounters across many kinds of boundaries The Poets Marilyn Chin Kimiko Hahn Myung Mi Kim Li Young Lee Timothy Liu David Mura and John Yau The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang,2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 The Best of Poetry in Motion Alice Quinn,2017-09-26 Poems once in motion continue to move their readers And what an imaginative variety of poetic delights is offered here Billy Collins It would have pleased Walt Whitman that poet of urban motion to envision his words coursing by electrified rail through a diverse global city of 8 million souls Since 1992 with the presentation of an excerpt from Walt Whitman s Crossing Brooklyn Ferry the Poetry in Motion program co sponsored by MTA Arts Design and the Poetry Society of America has brought more than 200 poems in whole or in part before the eyes of millions of subway and bus riders offering a moment of timelessness in the busy day The poems are by an eclectic mix of writers from Sappho and Sylvia Plath to W H Auden Rita Dove Seamus Heaney Nikki Giovanni Patrick Phillips and Aracelis Girmay Each of the 100 poems gathered here has in sixteen lines or less the power to enliven the quotidian provide nourishment for the soul and enchant even the youngest among us Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang,2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography
