The Literate Eye Rachel Teukolsky, 2009-07-30 Rather than focusing on German philosophy or the French avant gardes as many books on the history of aesthetics do Teukolsky takes up British responses to modern art controversies thus providing a unique view on the development of artistic forms and art history She considers the canonical writing of authors like John Ruskin Walter Pater and Oscar Wilde alongside texts belonging to the rich field of Victorian print culture gallery reviews scientific treatises satirical cartoons advertisements and early photography monographs among them Spanning the years 1840 to 1910 her argument also adds substance to our understanding of the transition from Victorianism to modernism a period of especially lively exchange between artists and intellectuals here narrated with careful attention given to the historical particularities and real events that stamped their imprint on such interactions
