"Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939 " Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La Révolution surréaliste edited by André Breton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot s clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper s last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s

The Photographic Times ,1889 Basic Critical Theory for Photographers Ashley la Grange,2013-08-06 Basic Critical Theory for Photographers generates discussion thought and practical assignments around key debates in photography Ashley la Grange avoids the trap of an elitist and purely academic approach to critical theory taking a dual theoretical and practical approach when considering the issues Key critical theory texts such as Sontag s On Photography and Barthes Camera Lucida are clarified and shortened La Grange avoids editorilising letting the arguments develop as the writers had intended it is the assignments which call into question each writer s approach and promote debate This is the ideal book if you want to understand key debates in photography and have a ready made structure within which to discuss and explore these fascinating issues It is accessible to students from high school to university level but will also be of interest to the general reader and to those photographers whose training and work is concerned with the practical aspects of photography Also includes invaluable glossary of terms and a substantial index that incorporates the classic texts helping you to navigate your way through these un indexed works The book also contains useful information on photo mechanical processes explaining how a photograph can appear very differently and as a result be interpreted in a range of ways in a variety of books Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915 Anti-Portraiture Fiona Johnstone,Kirstie Imber,2020-11-26 The portrait has historically been understood as an artistic representation of a human subject Its purpose was to provide a visual or psychological likenesses or an expression of personal familial or social identity it was typically associated with the privileged individual subject of Western modernity Recent scholarship in the humanities and social sciences however has responded to the complex nature of twenty first century subjectivity and proffered fresh conceptual models and theories to analyse it The contributors to Anti Portraiture examine subjectivity via a range of media including sculpture photography and installation and make a convincing case for an expanded definition of portraiture By offering a timely reappraisal of the terms through which this genre is approached the chapter authors volunteer new paradigms in which to consider selfhood embodiment and representation In doing so they further this exciting academic debate and challenge the curatorial practices and acquisition policies of museums and galleries Cryptographic and Information Security Approaches for Images and Videos S. A. Rushdy, 2012-06-18 The End of American Lynching questions how we think about the dynamics of lynching what lynchings mean to the society in which they occur how lynching is defined and the circumstances that lead to lynching Ashraf H A Rushdy looks at three lynchings over the course of the twentieth century one in Coatesville Pennsylvania in 1911 one in Marion Indiana in 1930 and one in Jasper Texas in 1998 to see how Americans developed two distinct ways of thinking and talking about this act before and after the 1930s One way takes seriously the legal and moral concept of complicity as a way to understand the dynamics of a lynching this way of thinking can give us new perceptions into the meaning of mobs and the lynching photographs in which we find them Another way which developed in the 1940s and continues to influence us today uses a strategy of denial to claim that lynchings have ended Rushdy examines how the denial of lynching emerged and developed providing insight into how and why we talk about lynching the way we do at the dawn of the twenty first century In doing so he forces us to confront our responsibilities as American citizens and as human beings Photo-era ,1915 Racial Spectacles Jonathan Markovitz, 2011-06 Racial Spectacles Explorations in Media Race and Justice examines the crucial role the media has played in circulating and shaping national dialogues about race through representations of crime and racialized violence Jonathan Markovitz argues that mass media racial spectacles often work to shore up racist stereotypes but that they also provide opportunities to challenge prevalent conceptions of race and can be seized upon as vehicles for social protest This book explores a series of mass media spectacles revolving around the news prime time television Hollywood cinema and the internet that have either relied upon reconfigured or helped to construct collective memories of race crime and in justice The case studies explored include the Scottsboro interracial rape case of the 1930s the Kobe Bryant rape case the Los Angeles Police Department s Rampart scandal the Abu Ghraib photographs and a series of racist incidents at the University of California This book will prove to be important not only for courses on race and media but also for any reader interested in issues of the media s role in social justice 7 Years Younger The Anti-Aging Breakthrough Diet Editors of Good Housekeeping, 2013-12-31 A delicious and yes proven to work big time weight loss plan with cutting edge anti aging benefits An innovative weight loss plan for men and women the 7 week diet is built on the foods science shows delivers anti aging benefits Adopt this easy to follow plan and you ll have better cholesterol levels lower blood pressure an in control sugar level a healthier heart and a leaner body And another big anti aging bonus Studies show many of the anti aging foods found on this diet also nourish your skin so you can actually look younger It s an added benefit that comes as a surprise to many but it s a

Performing Trauma in Central Africa Laura Edmondson,2018-03-26 What are the stakes of cultural production in a time of war How is artistic expression prone to manipulation by the state and international humanitarian organizations In the charged political terrain of post genocide Rwanda post civil war Uganda and recent violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo Laura Edmondson explores performance through the lens of empire Instead of celebrating theatre productions as expression of cultural agency and resilience Edmondson traces their humanitarian imperatives to a place where global narratives of violence take precedence over local traditions and audiences Working at the intersection of performance and trauma Edmondson reveals how artists and cultural workers manipulate narratives in the shadow of empire and how empire in turn infiltrates creative capacities

Ethics and Images of Pain Asbjørn Grønstad, Henrik Gustafsson,2012-04-27 Few phenomena are as formative of our experience of the visual world as displays of suffering But what does it mean to have an ethical experience of disturbing or traumatizing images What kind of ethical proposition does an image of pain mobilize How may the spectator learn from and make use of the painful image as a source of ethical reflection Engaging with a wide range of visual media from painting theatre and sculpture to photography film and video this interdisciplinary collection of essays by leading and emerging scholars of visual culture offers a reappraisal of the increasingly complex relationship between images of pain and the ethics of viewing Ethics and Images of Pain reconsiders the persistent and ever pertinent nexus of aesthetics and ethics the role of painful images as generators of unpredictable forms of affect the moral transformation of spectatorship the ambivalence of the witness and the representation of affliction as a fundamental form of our shared scopic experience The instructive and illuminating essays in the collection introduce a phenomenological context in which to make sense of our current ecology of excruciating images one that accentuates notions of responsibility empathy and imagination Contributors trace the images of pain across a miscellany of case studies and amongst the topics addressed are the work of artists as disparate as Doris Salcedo Anselm Kiefer and Bendik Riis photographs from Abu Ghraib and Rwanda Hollywood war films and animated documentaries performances of self immolations and incidents of police brutality captured on mobile phones
