

PHOTOJOURNALISM

- Is about capturing the human experience and making your own art; not just capturing the creations of others.
- Is a particular form of journalism (the collecting, editing, and presenting of news material for publication or broadcast) that creates images in order to tell a news story.
- It is telling a story with images and visuals rather than with words.
- It is providing information, while conveying the truth to give insight to the viewer.

Photojournalism Making Pictures For Publication:

Photojournalism Philip C. Geraci, 1978 Photojournalism Paul Martin Lester, 2015-07-16 Originally published in 1991 A photojournalist is a mixture of a cool detached professional and a sensitive involved citizen The taking of pictures is much more than F stops and shutter speeds The printing of pictures is much more than chemical temperatures and contrast grades The publishing of pictures is much more than cropping and size decisions A photojournalist must always be aware that the technical aspects of the photographic process are not the primary concerns This book addresses ethics in photojournalism in depth with sections on the philosophy in the discipline on pictures of victims or disaster scenes on privacy rights and on altering images As important and interesting today as when it was first in print Photojournalism Philip C. Geraci, 1984

Photojournalism Kenneth Kobre, 1996 Blends interviews with professionals sharp practical experience and high impact photographs The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Peres, 2013-05-29 This volume is a complete revision of the 1996 third edition shares the ever changing breadth of photographic topics with a special emphasis on digital imaging and contemporary issues Produced by an international team of photographic and imaging experts with collaboration from the George Eastman House the world's oldest photography museum this fourth edition contains essays and photographic reproductions sharing information where photography and imaging serve a primary role ranging from the atomic to the cosmic Publication Design Roy Paul Nelson, 1983 Handbook of Photography Ronald P. Lovell, Fred C.

Zwahlen, James A. Folts, 1987 This book is aimed to teach those who had never before held a camera how to take photographs develop film and make prints A chapter has been devoted to each step in the photographic process from focusing the camera on the person or object to be photographed to the emergence of the final picture mounted for display or ready for use in print
