Borsje Hedwig Meyer Wilmes Goedroen Juchtmans Alma Lanser and Riet Bons Storm Transforming Enterprise? Andrew Yancey, 2020-03-25 How does Christian faith integrate with capitalism This question has been at the heart of Christian ethics for more than three hundred years but rarely as complex and important as now The polarizing influence of consumer capitalism has extended into virtually every domain of human life On the one hand capitalism has contributed to increases in standards of living and life expectancy especially among those in extreme poverty On the other it has exacerbated income inequality environmental damages and social displacement For contemporary American evangelical theology this is problematic It has long been on a quest to show that Christian faith harmonizes with capitalistic enterprise But can faith harness the transformational power of consumer capitalism without being affected by its excesses For many the election of Donald Trump as president has revealed a great divide within American evangelicalism about the links between Christianity economic power and moral character Working from the field of academic practical theology in interdisciplinary dialogue with business management ethics Transforming Enterprise shows why and how a reframing of the relationship between Christian faith and capitalistic enterprise is needed in the contemporary postsecular milieu Seeking Sense in the City Bert Roebben, 2009 Young people have a perfect right to good education They deserve committed educators safe schools powerful learning opportunities but most of all a clear sense of direction that offers them insight in the values norms and beliefs of the global community In Europe there is a long tradition of public moral and religious education in close cooperation with churches and faith communities In this book the expertise of German Dutch English and French speaking scholars is collected and reflected on the basis of the metaphor of the city the place of encounter with other people in complexity and diversity The book is an invitation to non European scholars and educators to get acquainted with these insights Peace Education and Religious Plurality Robert Jackson, Satoko Fujiwara, 2013-10-18 Does religion bring peace or war In order to discuss this fundamental question it is essential to reflect upon religious education that shapes the views of religion among young generations This book has developed from the special panel on Religious Education and Peace for the 19th World Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR the largest international organization in religious studies which took place in Tokyo in March 2005 Its international contributors discuss the kinds of religious education used for peace education that is attempted or needed in their respective societies faced with tensions and conflicts not only between different religions but also between religion and secularism This is the first book in the field that includes both Asian and Western writers from Korea Japan Indonesia Israel Germany Spain UK and USA It is an innovative attempt to build a bridge between the study of religion religious education and peace education This book was previously published as a special issue of British Journal of Religious Education Pragmatism and Modernities , 2010-01-01 Pragmatism belongs at least to a certain degree to the Protestant based reaction towards the economic social and political developments of the time in the US and it is no coincidence that the pragmatists all came from religious families if not even theologian families

But these life conditions have changed over the course of the last century as much as the Protestant self assurance has been questioned more and more The question discussed in this book by international scholars is as to whether the possible modernity of pragmatism of around and after 1900 can still be labeled modern today in the modernity or post modernity around and after 2000 Has philosophy and philosophy of education found better alternatives Have the alternatives of the time around 1900 proven to be better Were the contemporary critics of pragmatism right These questions are discussed in fourteen chapters clustered in three larger parts The first part deals with pragmatism and modernity around 1900 the second part discusses contemporary alternatives to pragmatism and critics of pragmatism and the third and last part of the book deals with the modernity of pragmatism today Intended audience philosophers philosophers of education historians historians of education religious educators historians of sociology cultural historians political scientists postmodernists

Religious Ideas, Feelings and Their Interrelationship Theo van der Zee, 2007 Religious education seeks to help students acquire religious ideas by interpreting religious and other stories in accordance with their life world Schools pursue this goal by organising religious learning activities The question is whether the acquisition of religious ideas is possible for young students considering the difficulties such as the complex and not readily understandable religious stories and social developments as de institutionalisation de traditionalisation and pluralisation What are the possibilities for primary schools of teaching their students knowledge about religious ideas What is the influence of feelings on the acquisition What possibilities in the form of learning arrangements can be created for primary school students with their diverse religious backgrounds to acquire religious ideas optimally That is the cardinal problem explored in this study

Consuming Youth John Berard, James Penner, Rick Bartlett, 2011-01-04 Today's relentless consumer culture dominated by popular media's emphasis on bigger better and more and catering to teenagers every want and desire is leaving our youth adrift in a sea of conflicting messages Messages that every youth worker must be able to decode and redirect away from the material world towards helping young people become who God created them to be givers instead of receivers servers instead of consumers Consuming Youth is for any adult who recognizes that following Jesus means leading young people through the pitfalls of consumer culture helping them discover vocation where their great gladness meets a world's great need and unleashing the kingdom of God on earth

Dreaming the Land Friedrich Schweitzer, International Academy of Practical Theology. Meeting, 2007 Dreaming the Land Theologies of Resistance and Hope is a theme that testifies to the contextual nature of practical theology This present volume contains a collection of essays with international contributions to practical theology In their original form these essays were presented at the seventh biennial conference of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT held at Brisbane Australia in June 2005 The dreaming and the land are both concepts central to the thinking of the aboriginal peoples of Australia The dreaming encompasses the creative and life giving forces which govern and express the lifeworld of these same people while the land is sacred space where the spirits of the ancestors of all human plant and animal life are represented The theme is the common thread in the first part of the book Here the search for Theologies of Resistance and Hope is related to experiences in the southern hemisphere to issues of the land as a concept for practical theology and to questions of human rights

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity

Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy, Dan Yarnell, 2018-03-14 It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional discipleship which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post-Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today

Confronting Religious Judgmentalism Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-05-23 Come to church or go to hell That's religious bullying It's judgmentalism And it's a theological distortion a distortion insisting that shame and self-loathing are morally appropriate In Christian humanist tradition God is not some cosmic judge eager to smite all of us for our sinfulness God is compassion We are cherished by God beyond our wildest imagining We are called to radical hospitality not to crass judgmentalism So where does this religious judgmentalism come from It is the heritage of medieval theocracy a violent vindictive God of command and control was far more useful politically than a God of compassion hospitality and forgiveness It comes from literal-minded misreading of the story of Adam and Eve and the forbidden fruit a story about shame not disobedience And it comes from political success in exploiting deep-seated liabilities in the American soul we spend our lives trying to prove ourselves a hopeless task There's an alternative In the Christian humanist tradition authentic moral judgment is rooted in conscience as a creative process Morality is an art demanding both rigorous consideration of the facts and thoughtful introspection Conscience properly understood and thoughtfully practiced is an antidote to shame incessant self-criticism and chronic self-doubt
