postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today Postmodernism, Twenty-First Century Culture, and American Fiction Matt Graham, 2024-07-19 Postmodernism's end is a complex and contentious topic Yet one overarching consensus emerges the postmodern has been surpassed This book poses a thought experiment challenging this position what if postmodernism persists within the twenty first century Rather than designate a new epoch or coherent movement this book interrogates the fragmented contradictory and counterintuitive endurance of postmodern aesthetics within post Cold War America An alternative use of postmodern aesthetics becomes possible when they are decoupled from their twentieth century historical location Collectively these repetitions posit a postmodern continuum contrasting the widely called for succession of postmodernism via this decoupling When postmodern aesthetics are no longer unconsciously repeated within their cultural moment this emergent shift within a period after postmodernism presents an alternative historical positioning and use After their cultural vanguard postmodern aesthetics become a confrontation of the chaotic realism of an inescapable post Cold War capitalism tapping into this cultural zeitgeist through literature When the Machine Made Art Grant D. Taylor, 2014-04-10 Considering how culturally indispensable digital technology is today it is ironic that computer generated art was attacked when it burst onto the scene in the early 1960s In fact no other twentieth century art form has elicited such a negative and hostile response When the Machine Made Art examines the cultural and critical response to computer art or what we refer to today as digital art Tracing the heated debates between art and science the societal anxiety over nascent computer technology and the myths and philosophies surrounding digital computation Taylor is able to identify the destabilizing forces that shape and eventually fragment the computer art movement Modernism - Dada - Postmodernism Richard Sheppard, 2000 This new collection updates integrates and contextualizes Richard Sheppard's essays on the historical avant garde Sheppard examines responses of modernist writers artists and philosophers to a changed sense of reality and human nature With its combination of previously published and new essays and its perspective on the theoretical avant garde modernism debate in the U S the volume provides the specialist and the general reader insight into European scholarly discourse on this hotly debated subject Theory and Methods Chris Philo, 2017-05-15 This volume tackles the complex terrain of theory and methods seeking to exemplify the major philosophical social theoretic and methodological developments some with clear political and ethical implications that have traversed human geography since the era of the 1960s when spatial science came to the fore Coverage includes Marxist and humanistic geographies and their many variations over the years as well as ongoing debates about agency structure and the concepts of time space place and scale Feminist and other positioned geographies alongside poststructuralist and posthumanist geographies are all evidenced as well as writings that push against the very limits of what human geography has embraced over these fifty plus years The volume combines readings that are well known and widely accepted as classic with readings that while less familiar are valuable in how they illustrate different possibilities for theory and method within the discipline The volume also includes a substantial introduction by the editor contextualising the readings and in the process providing a new interpretation of the last half century of change within the thoughts and practices of human geography

Russian Postmodernism Mikhail N. Epstein, Alexander A. Genis, Slobodanka Vladiv-Glover, 2016 Recent decades have been decisive for Russia not only politically but culturally as well The end of the Cold War has enabled Russia to take part in the global rise and crystallization of postmodernism This volume investigates the manifestations of this crucial trend in Russian fiction poetry art and spirituality demonstrating how Russian postmodernism is its own unique entity It offers a point of departure and valuable guide to an area of contemporary literary cultural studies insufficiently represented in English language scholarship This second edition includes additional essays on the topic and a new introduction examining the most recent developments
